On October 23, 2019, CenterPoint Energy Houston Electric, LLC (“CenterPoint Houston”) filed a compliance application to temporarily cease billing transition charges under Schedule TC3 and reset the transition charge rates thereunder to “zero” pursuant to the Financing Order issued in Docket No. 34448. The application was approved on November 15, 2019, and CenterPoint Houston has ceased billing transition charges under Schedule TC3 because the bond’s last payment of principal and interest will be met with current funds available. No true-up calculations were needed to set the rates to “zero.” There will be no new calculation of rates for bond payments thereof. Before the end of the term of Schedule TC3, CenterPoint Houston will submit another compliance filing to address any final over- or under-collections under Schedule TC3.
