Part No.:

Addendum:

Question:

Referring to Mr. Pregeant's Table 1, provide a similar table for distribution O&M expenses, FERC Accounts 580-598. Provide all supporting data and calculations.

---

Response:

See the Company's response to Cities 2-2.

That response provided an updated Table 1 of Distribution O&M Expenses in cents per kWh, as shown in Ms. McManus' direct testimony (2B-25).

The response also provided the Total Distribution Expenses source data used - Distribution Operation & Maintenance (FERC Accounts 580-598), distribution Meter Reading Expenses (FERC Account 902), and Total Sales of Electricity. FERC Account 902 is included because it pertains to distribution meter reading, which will be provided by the unbundled distribution company beyond January 1, 2002.
