Addendum:

Question:

Refer to EGS' Response to Cities' 30-6 at WC11552. Provide a detailed explanation that sets forth the basis for the cost of $2,283,860 included in FERC account 565 for the non-regulated portion of River Bend. Also, explain why no cost is included in this account for the regulated portion of River Bend.

Response:

The amounts recorded in FERC account 565 – Transmission of electricity by others are for charges incurred by the 30% unregulated portion of River Bend in accordance with the Entergy Open Access Transmission Tariff. The charges were calculated in accordance with the above referenced tariff.

There are no costs recorded in FERC account 565 for the regulated portion of River Bend because this regulated portion of River Bend is used to serve the Company's retail rate payers.
