CENTERPOINT ENERGY HOUSTON ELECTRIC, LLC'S AND TEXAS GENCO, LP'S FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION TO THE STAFF OF THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

Pursuant to Sections 22.141-145 of the Procedural Rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, CenterPoint Energy Houston Electric, LLC and Texas Genco, LP (jointly CenterPoint) request that the Staff of the Public Utility Commission ("Staff"), by and through its attorney of record, provide the information requested on Attachment "A" in accordance with the definitions, explanatory notes, and instructions below within ten (10) days of receipt thereof, unless the Presiding Officer has provided a different time limit. It is further requested that the answers to the requests for information be made under oath, and that each item of information be made available as it is completed, rather than upon compilation of all information requested. Each answer should identify the person responsible for preparing it (other than the purely clerical aspects of its preparation) and the name of the witness in this proceeding who will sponsor the answer and who can attest to its accuracy. These requests are continuing in nature, and should there be a change in circumstances which would modify or change an answer supplied, such changed answer should be submitted immediately as a supplement to the original answer.

DEFINITIONS, EXPLANATORY NOTES, AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. The term "identify," "identity" or "identification" when used in reference to an individual person, means to state that person's full name and business address, including zip code, telephone number, and present or last-known business position and duties.
2. The term "identify," "identity" or "identification" when used in reference to a business organization, means to state the corporate, partnership or proprietorship name or names, and locations, full addresses and telephone numbers of its principal place of business and all other business locations that should be denoted for a full and complete response to an inquiry, interrogatory or request for information.
3. The term "identify," "identity" or "identification" when used in reference to a document or study, means to state the type of document or the study format (e.g. book, magazine article, circular, ledger, letter, memoranda, chart, computer run information, microfilm, etc.), its present location and custodian, a description of its form, title, author, volume and page number or other means of general identification, its approximate size and number of pages, and the date on which it was made, prepared or taken. If any such document was, but is no longer in your possession or subject to its control, state what disposition was made of it.
4. The term "identify," "identity" or "identification" when used in reference to anything other than a person, business organization, document or study, means to state the nature and present location of the item, a description of its form, the name or title by which the item is commonly known, and the person or business organization that has custody of or responsibility to maintain the item.
5. The term "study" or "studies" means any analysis, investigation, summary of data, listing or report the results of which were made known, formally or informally, where the author thereof reached an objective or subjective conclusion or presented information upon which others could or did reach an objective or subjective conclusion.
6. The terms "document" and "documents" are used in their broadest sense and shall mean and include all written, printed, typed, recorded, or graphic matter of every kind and description, including drafts, originals and copies, and all attachments and appendices thereto. Without limiting the foregoing, the terms "document" and "documents" shall include all agreements, contracts, communications, correspondence, letters, telegrams, telexes, emails, messages, memoranda, records, reports, books, summaries, tape recordings or other records of telephone conversations or interviews, summaries or other records of personal conversations, minutes or summaries or other records of meetings and conferences, summaries or other records of negotiations, other summaries, diaries, diary entries, calendars, appointment books, time record, instructions, work assignments, forecasts, statistical data, statistical statements, financial statements, work sheets, work papers, drafts, graphs, maps, charts, tables, accounts, analytical records, consultants' reports, appraisals, bulletins, brochures, pamphlets, circulars, trade letters, press releases, notes, notices, marginal notations, notebooks, telephone records, bills statements, records of obligation and expenditure, invoices, lists, journals, advertising, recommendations, printouts, compilations, tabulations, analysis, studies, surveys, transcripts of hearings, transcripts of testimony, affidavits, expense reports, microfilm, microfiche, articles, speeches, tape or disk recordings, sound recordings, video recordings, film, tape, photographs, punch cards, programs, data compilation from which information can be obtained (including matter used in data processing) and other printed, written, handwritten, type-written, recorded, stenographic, computer-generated, computer-stored, or electronically-stored matter, however, and by whomever produced, prepared, reproduced, disseminated, or made. The terms "document" and "documents" also include all copies of documents by whatever means made, except that where a document is identified or produced, identical copies thereof which do not contain any markings, additions, or deletions different from the original need not be separately produced.

7. If a copy of the information requested is available in machine-readable form (such as punch cards, paper or magnetic tapes, drums, disks or core storage), state the form in which it is available and describe the type of computer or other machinery required to read the information.
8. When a request calls for the identification of a "document" or "documents," the identification should include the following:
 - (a) the full name and address of the author(s) by whom the document was written, prepared, recorded or made;
 - (b) the date of the document;
 - (c) the title and/or "re" of the document;
 - (d) the subject matter of the document;
 - (e) the full name and address of the recipient and every person who received copies of the document;
 - (f) the full name and address of the person who has possession, custody or control of the document, or who is in charge of maintaining the document; and
 - (g) if the document has been lost, shredded or destroyed (whether intentionally or unintentionally) an explanation of the reasons for and causes of such loss, shredding or destruction.
9. If any requested information or document cannot be provided in its entirety, it shall be provided to the greatest extent possible, with an indication of the portion of the information or document that cannot be provided and the reason why it can not be provided.
10. The respondent to requests for information must provide not only the information or documents in its physical possession, custody, or control, but all information and documents in the physical possession, custody, or control of any other person acting or purporting to act on behalf of the respondent, including, but not limited to, contractors, attorneys, consultants, and witnesses.

11. The term "communication" shall mean any transaction of information by oral, graphic, written, pictorial, or other means, including, but not limited to, telephone, conversations, letters, telegrams, emails, and personal conversations.
12. "To each" means to identify separately information, facts, data and documents for each of the individual items or things designated as the subject of the specific inquiry or request.
13. Terms expressed in the masculine gender shall be regarded as including the feminine or neuter; terms expressed in the singular shall be regarded as being expressed in the plural, and vice versa; terms expressed in the past tense be regarded as being expressed in the present tense, and vice versa; and the term "and" shall be regarded as the term "or," and vice versa, so as to not limit the scope of any request.
14. The term "CenterPoint" refers to Reliant Energy Incorporated (including its unincorporated divisions Reliant Energy HL&P and Texas Genco) when used in the context of any time period prior to October 1, 2002 and refers jointly to CenterPoint Energy Houston Electric, LLC and Texas Genco, LP when used in the context of any time period on or after that date.
15. The term "Reliant Resources" refers to Reliant Resources, Inc.; Reliant Energy Retail Services, LLC; Reliant Energy Solutions, LLC; and any affiliate of Reliant Resources, Inc. on or after October 1, 2002.
16. The terms "Staff of the Public Utility Commission," "Staff," "you," and "your" refer to the entity that is a party to the subject proceeding to whom these requests for information are addressed.
17. The terms "Commission" and "PUC" refer to the Public Utility Commission of Texas.
18. In answering each request, please restate the request prior to providing the response. Each request and its response should begin on a separate page. Where there are subparts to a request, the answer to each subpart should be separately labeled.
19. If any of the information requested is claimed to be privileged or proprietary, then the response should identify such information, identify all persons who participated in the preparation of the information or who received a copy, read, or examined the information or knows of its substance, state the present location of the information and all copies of it, and identify each person having custody or control of the information or any of the copies.
20. If any requested information is not available in the form requested, provide the information in the form that it currently exists, explain why the data cannot be provided in the form requested, and describe the work or process needed to provide the information in the form requested.

Respectfully submitted,
