En-Touch was also successful in its initiative to introduce gender diversity in the call centre in 2009 by hiring a minority male customer service representative who met and exceeded all of the application requirements. In 2010, En-Touch increased the number of male customer service representatives to two (2). Although En-Touch has not grown significantly in the previous year, our workforce continues to be highly diverse, with approximately 30% representing racial minorities, and approximately 54% representing gender minority.

En-Touch was successful in its initiative to identify and engage a qualified WBE for a highly technical and specialized project in 2008. En-Touch engaged Engel Consulting Group, which has previously received the distinction from DiversityBusiness.com of being one of the top women-owned businesses in Illinois. Engel has branch offices in several states and employs workers throughout the United States, including Texas.

- (2) Make an assessment of the success of each of the specific initiatives, programs, and activities listed above:

In 2010, due to the continued economic downturn, En-Touch was not actively hiring as in the past, but did replace several employees as they left the company for various reasons. En-Touch continues to use professional legal services of a firm that is certified by the State of Texas as a Historically Underutilized Business (HUB), Casey, Gentz, & Magness, L.L.P.

- Everyone deserves the opportunity to participate fully within our economic communities.
 - The En-Touch workplace is enriched by the diversity of its workforce.
 - People should be valued for their differences - not in spite of their differences.

En-Touch embraces the following principles and seeks to instill these principles in its corporate culture:

ETS Telephone Company d/b/a E-n-Touch Systems ("E-n-Touch") continues to seek the most qualified applicants and contractors based upon the abilities and skills that each can offer. All applicants as well as current employees are aware of the fact that E-n-Touch is an Equal Opportunity Employer. E-n-Touch does not consider race, religion or creed in employment or contract selection procedures. E-n-Touch utilizes several methods of reaching potential applicants. Our best results continue to come from local classified listings and internet based employment listings. Our applicant and employee pools continue to reflect the general population of our service areas.

- (1) Describe the specific initiatives, programs, and activities undertaken under the plan during the preceding year:

COMPANY INITIATIVES

ETS TELEPHONE COMPANY, INC. / B/A EN-TOUCH SYSTEMS

ETS Telephone is proud to report a consistently diverse workforce: 54% of our current employees are women, many of whom hold upper management and professional positions, and 30% of our employees represent ethnically diverse groups. En-Touch has a long-standing relationship with a historically underutilized business for legal and regulatory professional services. As the economic environment improves and En-Touch starts hiring again, the company will continue to introduce gender diversity in the call center and continue to concentrate on early initiatives with the goal of improving its overall plan.

(4) State the specific progress made under the plan filed by the utility:

En-Touch will continue to invite many companies, including companies defined as historically underutilized businesses, to bid on each and every contracting opportunity. Projects are awarded based upon the economic needs of the company, including but not limited to the ability to complete contracted projects within required timelines and budgets, technical ability, and any specialization requirements. Whenever a small business or historically underutilized business places the competitive bid or offers a competitive price within the parameters of the project, En-Touch will eagerly utilize their services.

En-Touch will continue to seek the most qualified applicants and contractors based upon the abilities and skills that each can offer, without considering race, religion or creed in employment or contract selection procedures. 2011 initiatives will again include employee diversity training as well as updating processes used to select and track job applicants and procurement from small and historically underutilized and small businesses.
