RE: Project No. 34190, Application of Yasir M. Zulfiqar for an Aggregator
Registration pursuant to P.U.C. SUBST. R. 25.111 - Notice of Deficiency

Dear Yasir Zulfiqar:

Staff of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Staff) has reviewed your application for registration as an aggregator and has determined that the application is deficient in several respects. The attached memorandum from Neal Frederick in the Financial Review Section of the Electric Industry Oversight Division outline the information that is missing or incomplete.

Pursuant to P.U.C. Subst. R. 25.111(h)(3)(B), you must correct the deficiencies within ten business days of the date this letter is issued. If you fail to correct the deficiencies in that time period, your application will be deemed rejected without prejudice to filing a new application.

To correct these deficiencies, you must file an addendum that contains all of the information discussed in the attached memo. You may use the aggregator application found on the Commission's website¹ and mark the box on page one labeled "This submission supplies additional information for a pending aggregator registration." Regardless of the format in which you submit the additional information, please clearly mark each item of submitted information to indicate to which portion of the application the information corresponds.

The addendum must be filed with the Commission's Central Records Filing Clerk and reference Project No. 34190. A total of seven copies (an original plus six copies) of the
