LONE STAR TRANSMISSION, LLC'S FIRST REQUEST FOR INFORMATION TO CHIMNEY CREEK LAND COMPANY, LLC

Lone Star Transmission, LLC ("Lone Star") requests that you provide the following information and answer the following questions(s) under oath. The question(s) should be answered in sufficient detail to fully present all of the relevant facts, within 10 days of receipt of these requests, as per Order No. 1 in this PUC Docket No. 38230.

The Commission's Procedural Rules provide that these question(s) are continuing in nature, and if there is a relevant change in your answer after you submit it such that it is no longer complete or accurate, submit an amended answer, under oath, as a supplement to your original answer within five (5) working days of your discovery that such amendment is appropriate. The Commission's Procedural Rules require that you state the name of the witness or witnesses in this cause who will sponsor the answer to the question at the hearing and can vouch for the truth of the answer.

Provide your response to the undersigned counsel at the e-mail address listed below and submit an original and five copies of your answers to the questions to the Filing Clerk, Public Utility Commission of Texas, 1701 N. Congress Avenue, Suite 8-110D, Austin, Texas 78701.

Respectfully submitted,

DEFINITIONS

As used in the Requests for Information, the terms listed below have the following meanings:

“You” and “your” refers to Chimney Creek Land Company, LLC, all its directors, officers, employees, consultants, agents and attorneys.

“Document” and “documents” as used herein in their broadest sense as set forth in Tex. R. Civ. P. 192.3(b), and specifically includes electronic or magnetic data as described in Rule 196.4. These words mean and include all written, printed, typed, recorded, or graphic matter of every kind and description, both original and copies, and all attachments and appendices. Without limiting the foregoing, the terms “Document” and “Documents” shall include all agreements, contracts, communications, correspondence, letters, opinion letters, telegrams, telexes, telefaxes, messages, memoranda, records, reports, books, summaries or other records of telephone conversations or interviews, summaries or other records of personal conversations or interviews, minutes, summaries, or other records of meetings and conferences, statements obtained from witnesses, summaries or other records of negotiations, other summaries, diaries, diary entries, calendars, appointment books, time records, instructions, work assignments, forecasts, progress reports, statistical data, statistical statements, financial statements, work sheets, work papers, drafts, graphs, charts, tables, accounts, analytical records, consultants' and experts' reports, appraisals, bulletins, notes, notices, marginal notations, notebooks, telephone records, bills, statements, records of obligation and expenditure, invoices, lists, journals, printouts, compilations, tabulations, analyses, studies, surveys, expense reports, microfilm, microfiche, tape or disc recordings, sound recordings, video recordings, film, tape, photographs, programs and data compilations from which information can be obtained (including matter used in data processing), and other printed, written, handwritten, typewritten, recorded, stenographic, computer-generated, computer-stored, magnetically-stored, optically-stored, or electronically stored matter, however and by produced, prepared, reproduced, disseminated, or made. The words "Document" and "Documents" also include all copies of documents by whatever means made, except that where a document is produced, identical copies of it that do not contain any markings, additions, or deletions that are different from the original do not have to be separately produced.

The terms "identify" and "describe," when used in reference to facts, an event, or an allegation, means to include: (1) a detailed description of the facts, events, or allegation at issue; (2) the date or dates on which the facts or event occurred, or the time period involved in the events giving rise or relating to the allegation; and (3) the name, address, telephone number, and affiliation of all persons involved in the facts, event, or allegation.

"Lone Star Transmission Project" shall refer to the proposed Central A to Central C to Sam Switch/Navarro 345 kV Transmission Line Project as set forth in its Application for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity, filed in this docket on May 24, 2010 and as subsequently amended and supplemented.

INSTRUCTIONS

Electronic or magnetic data shall be produced in its native computer readable format with an identification of its associated software application and computer system on CD-ROM's readable by PC computers. The data produced must contain an exact and complete image copy of the source hard drives, or other electronic or magnetic media or storage device containing the original data and include not only active files, but all deleted, erased or discarded copies, and prior versions or drafts of the data.

All duplicates or copies of documents are to be provided to the extent they have handwriting, additions, or deletions of any kind different from the original document being produced.

Please comply with PUC PROC. R. 22.72 (g)(2)(B), which per subsection (a) specifically applies to discovery responses, and which provides that: "All pages of the copy filed pursuant to this paragraph, starting with the first page of the table of contents, shall be consecutively numbered through the last page of the document, including attachments, if any."

LONE STAR TRANSMISSION, LLC'S FIRST REQUEST FOR INFORMATION TO CHIMNEY CREEK LAND COMPANY, LLC
