1. Each request herein extends to any documents or information in your possession and the possession of any of the attorneys or law firms that purport to represent you in this case.

2. Each and every non-identical copy of a document, whether different from the original because of indications of the recipient(s), handwritten notes, marks, attachments, marginalia, or any other reason, is a separate document that must be produced.

3. If you object to any portion of a request on the ground of privilege, answer the non-privileged portion of the Request by providing such non-privileged information as is responsive.

4. If you object to any portion of a request on any ground other than privilege, you should still provide documents responsive to the remaining non-objectionable portion.

5. Separately for each request to which you object in whole or in part, describe in detail and itemize each basis of your objection.

when made, is no longer true, and the circumstances are such that failure to amend the answer is in substance a knowing concealment.

11. Any document that is withheld from production pursuant to a claim of attorney-client, work product, party communication or investigative privilege shall be identified and shall be segregated and maintained for in camera submission, and a list identifying such withheld documents shall be furnished at the time and place of production.
