II. INSTRUCTIONS

1. Each request herein extends to any documents or information in your possession and the possession of any of the attorneys or law firms that purport to represent you in this case.

2. Each and every non-identical copy of a document, whether different from the original because of indications of the recipient(s), handwritten notes, marks, attachments, marginalia, or any other reason, is a separate document that must be produced.

3. If you object to any portion of a request on the ground of privilege, answer the non-privileged portion of the Request by providing such non-privileged information as is responsive.

4. If you object to any portion of a request on any ground other than privilege, you should still provide documents responsive to the remaining non-objectionable portion.

5. Separately for each request to which you object in whole or in part, describe in detail and itemize each basis of your objection.

6. If the basis of an objection to any request, or any portion thereof, is a statute, contract or other agreement, or any other obstacle to production that you claim is based in the law, please identify the basis of that purported obstacle with specificity.

7. Each request herein shall be construed independently, and no request shall be viewed as limiting the scope of any other request. Please indicate where any portion of your document production in response to a request has been covered in your production in response to another request, and please specify the request numbers at issue.

8. If you claim that any document responsive to any request is lost or destroyed, (a) identify and describe such document, (b) describe how the document was lost or destroyed, and (c) identify when the document was lost or destroyed.

9. If you claim that any documents responsive to any request are already in the possession of CenterPoint Houston, please identify the document with sufficient specificity to allow CenterPoint Houston to locate the document.

10. The requests shall be deemed continuing so as to require additional answers if, after answering such requests, you obtain information upon the basis of which you determine that the answer was incorrect when made, or you become aware that the answer, though correct when made, is no longer true, and the circumstances are such that failure to amend the answer is in substance a knowing concealment.

11. Any document that is withheld from production pursuant to a claim of attorney-client, work product, party communication or investigative privilege shall be identified and shall be segregated and maintained for in camera submission, and a list identifying such withheld documents shall be furnished at the time and place of production. Such list shall state with respect to each document: (a) the privilege under which the document is being withheld; (b) a description of the type of document; (c) a description of the subject matter and purpose of the document; (d) the date the document was prepared; (e) the author and/or signatory of the document; (f) the identity of the persons to whom the document was sent; and (g) the present custodian of the document.

12. As part of the response to each request for information, please state, at the bottom of the answer, the name and job position of each person who participated in any way, other than providing clerical assistance, in the preparation of the response. Please also state the name of the witness in this docket who will sponsor the answer to the request and may verify the truth of the response.

III. REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION

6-1 In Mr. Kollen's direct testimony at page 49, lines 4-5, he states that "CEHE is not obligated to pay CNP Service Company until 30 days after the end of the preceding month." On pages 155-56 of the transcript of Mr. Kollen's September 24, 2010 deposition, he states that he bases this on an agreement between CEHE and CNP Service Company.

6-1.1 Please identify the document, and by Bates number the page(s) in that document, supporting Mr. Kollen's contention that CEHE is not obligated to pay CNP Service Company until 30 days after the end of the preceding month.

6-1.2 Please state whether it is still Mr. Kollen's contention that CEHE is not obligated to pay CNP Service Company until 30 days after the end of the preceding month. If so, please provide the basis for that contention.

- 6-2 On pages 158 of the transcript of Mr. Kollen's deposition, he states "I believe that the same document that I looked at that was part of the company's filing also addresses the receipts by CEHE from its affiliates for services that it provides to other affiliates."
- 6-2.1 Please identify the document, and by Bates number the page(s) in that document, supporting Mr. Kollen's statement.
- 6-3 Will Mr. Kollen modify or withdraw his recommended adjustment to CEHE's expense lead days for affiliate transactions? If not, please state whether there are additional bases for his recommendation not already identified by Mr. Kollen.
