Re: Joe Edward Muirhead

To Whom it May Concern:

This office represents Joe Edward Muirhead. Please allow this to serve as request for a public hearing for the applicant, City of Splendora, applicant CCN No. 11727. Mr. Muirhead would be adversely affected by the granting of the application for water/sewer utility service, as he has approximately 140 acres in the proposed area and has a significant amount of livestock and agricultural on his property. Without more information regarding how this would impact Mr. Muirhead and his customary usage of his property, he therefore requests a public hearing. If his utilization of the wells on his property and the irrigation he regularly performs would not be impacted by this water/sewer utility services and no change would be necessary then it may make a public hearing unnecessary. Additionally, based upon the amount of property Mr. Muirhead owns within the proposed area, approximately 140 acres, he requests to invoke his right to opt out of the district, at least until the necessary information regarding the impact on his utilization of the property in his customary manner is further investigated and detailed. This letter shall be supplemented with a metes and bounds description and survey of said property within the next 7 to 10 days, once said information is procured.

Should you require any additional information, please contact my office.

Very truly yours,

Richard R. Burroughs

WHEREAS, Mortgagee has, at the special instance and request of Grantee, paid to Grantor a portion of the purchase price of the property hereinafter described, as included in the above-described Note, said Vendor's Lien against said property securing the payment of said Note is hereby assigned, transferred and delivered to Mortgagee, Grantor hereby conveying to said Mortgagee the said superior title to said property, subrogating said Mortgagee to all the rights and remedies of Grantor in the premises by virtue of said liens; and

Grantor has GRANTED, SOLD and CONVEYED, and by these presents does GRANT, SELL and CONVEY unto said Grantee, the following described property, to-wit:

SEE EXHIBIT "A" ATTACHED HERETO.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above-described premises, together with all and singular, the rights and appurtenances thereunto in anywise belonging unto said Grantee, his heirs and assigns, forever. And Grantor does hereby bind himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto said Grantee, his heirs and assigns, against every person whomsoever lawfully claiming or to claim the same or any part thereof.

Taxes for the current year have been prorated and their payment is assumed by Grantee.

This conveyance is made subject to any and all valid and subsisting restrictions, easements, rights of way, reservations, maintenance charges together with any lien securing said maintenance charges, zoning laws, ordinances of municipal and/or other governmental authorities, conditions and covenants, if any, applicable to and enforceable against the above-described property as shown by the records of the County Clerk of said County.

The use of any pronoun herein to refer to Grantor or Grantee shall be deemed a proper reference even though Grantor and/or Grantee may be an individual (either male or female), a corporation, a partnership or a group of two or more individuals, corporations and/or partnerships, and when this Deed is executed by or to a corporation, or trustee, the words "heirs, executors and administrators" or "heirs and assigns" shall, with respect to such corporation or trustee, be construed to mean "successors and assigns".

It is expressly agreed that the Vendor's Lien is retained in favor of the payee of said Note against the above-described property, premises and improvements, until said Note and all interest thereon shall have been fully paid according to the terms thereof, when this Deed shall become absolute.

EXECUTED this 18TH day of DECEMBER, 1998.

Authority

This agreement is pursuant to Title 1, Chapter 4 of the Texas Family Code and is signed voluntarily.

Each party is aware of the methods of the enforceability of this agreement and each party is represented by independent legal counsel who have fully explained the effects of this agreement. Each party understands that this agreement is enforceable against the heirs or the personal representative of the estate of a proceeding occurs after the death of the spouse against whom enforcement is sought in accordance with Section 4.205 of the Texas Family Code, and in the event any of the property described herein is found to be separate property the parties understand the language contained in Section 4.205 and waive the necessity of Section 4.205(b) requiring the bold-faced type, capital letters, or underlined admonishment disclosures required by that Section.

It is also the parties intent that this agreement also be considered to have the same effect as a Rule 11 Agreement pursuant to the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure with the same effect as an agreement made in a judicial proceeding by parties relating to matters incident to proceedings obviating the need for proof litigating any of the issues contained herein, and the parties agree that this written agreement is enforceable in the same manner as specified in Section 154.071 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, Title 7. The parties further understand and agree that this written contract does not reflect the intention of the parties due to mutual mistake and neither party has acted upon any misunderstanding of the same material facts.

The parties agree that this agreement is binding and irrevocable at the time of execution of this agreement rather than any subsequent event with the same effect as authorized in Section 7.006 of the Texas Family Code and Section 154.071 of the Texas Civil Procedure and Remedies Code. It is further our intent that the division is just and right and each party waives any right to request from the Court a revised agreement or to file suit claiming a division contrary to this agreement, save for the discovery that any party was not fully candid in providing the other a complete accounting of their property.

Stipulations

It is the intent of the parties that any provision contained herein pursuant to Section 4.52 of the Texas Probate Code, this agreement creates a right of survivorship in community property and is the equivalent of creating a right of survivorship that becomes the property of the survivor and vests in and belongs to the surviving spouse and passes to the surviving spouse.

It is further stipulated and agreed that this agreement cannot be revoked and in the event one party seeks to revoke this agreement, the party seeking revocation shall be solely responsible for the attorney's fees of the other party to be equalized and determined by the Court in which the revocation is sought.

1. The parties are entering into this agreement in accordance with article XVI, section 15, of the Texas Constitution, as amended, and relevant sections of the Texas Family

Code, as amended and its corresponding sections in the Texas Family Code.

2. The parties acknowledge and agree that they are making and entering into this agreement voluntarily and without the intention to defraud or prejudice preexisting creditors.

3. The parties own as community property certain real and personal property as described in Schedules A and B, which are attached to this agreement. The parties intend by this agreement to partition or exchange those properties between themselves.

4. Each party desires to partition or exchange that community property in order for each party, following the execution of this agreement, to hold and possess his or her share as his or her sole and separate property.

5. The parties intend to clarify their respective property rights to eliminate any uncertainty about those rights.

6. The parties intend by this agreement that no future community property will be created during the remainder of their marriage.

In consideration of the mutual promises, agreements, partitions, exchanges, releases, and waivers contained in this agreement and in consideration of the parties' desire to establish certain rights and obligations by this agreement, and with the intent to be fully bound by the terms of this agreement, the parties covenant, agree, and contract as follows:

I.

DISCLOSURE

Each party represents and warrants to the other party that he or she has, made to the other party a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and extent of the community property of the parties, including values, and financial obligations, contingent or otherwise, and that the disclosure includes but is not limited to the property set forth in Schedules A and B attached to this agreement and other documentation exchanged between the parties before their signing of this agreement. Each party additionally acknowledges that, before the signing of this agreement, he or she has been provided a fair and reasonable disclosure of the community property and financial obligations of the parties. Furthermore, and before the execution of this agreement, each party has provided, to the other party all information and documentation pertaining to all community property, including income and value, and all financial obligations they have incurred since the date of the execution of this agreement.

Each party to this agreement agrees that this agreement was signed voluntarily, the agreement is not unconscionable at the time of execution, that each party was provided a fair and reasonable disclosure of the property or financial obligations of each party and that each party waived any right to disclosure of the property or financial obligations of the other party beyond the disclosure provided. It is stipulated that each party had an adequate knowledge of the property or financial obligations of the other party, that each party waives any right to further disclosure of the property or financial obligations of the other party beyond the disclosure provided. Each party had adequate knowledge of the property of the other party and is satisfied with the disclosure provided.

PROPERTY OF PARTIES

Husband and Wife own as community property or separate property all that certain estate, real, personal, and mixed, described in Schedules A and B attached to this agreement.

II.

PROPERTY PARTITIONED TO HUSBAND

The parties agree that Husband will own, possess, and enjoy as his sole and separate estate, free from any claim of Wife, the property listed in Schedule A, which is attached to this agreement and incorporated in it for all purposes. Wife partitions and exchanges to Husband all her community-property interest in and to all the property listed in Schedule A, together with any insurance policies covering the property and any escrow accounts that relate to it. Wife grants, releases, and confirms to Husband and to his heirs and assigns all right, title, and interest in and claims to the property listed in Schedule A, to have and to hold the same, with all and singular the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging forever.

PROPERTY PARTITIONED TO WIFE

The parties agree that Wife will own, possess, and enjoy as her sole and separate estate, free from any claim of Husband, all the property listed in Schedule B, which is attached to this agreement and incorporated in it for all purposes. Husband partitions and exchanges to Wife all his community-property interest in and to all the property listed in Schedule B, together with all insurance policies covering the property and all escrow accounts that relate to it. Husband grants, releases, and confirms to Wife and to her heirs and assigns all right, title, and interest in and claims to the property listed in Schedule B, to have and to hold the same, with all and singular the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging forever.

ASSET DESCRIPTIONS

The parties have tried to use the correct legal description for each asset listed in any schedule attached to this agreement. If any asset is incorrectly described, the description used is adequate for the purposes of this agreement and accompanying schedules, and the parties agree to execute any additional paperwork required to confirm ownership in the name of the party in whose schedule the asset appears.

III.

INCOME FROM HUSBAND'S SEPARATE PROPERTY

Except as noted below, Wife agrees that all income, changes, mutations, and increases in kind or in value of Husband's separate property following the execution of this agreement and all property that he may hereafter acquire, including all property acquired as a result of the reinvestment of income from his separate property, will be the separate property of Husband. Income from separate property includes but is not limited to interest, rents, royalties, stocks, splits, and dividends. Except as noted below, Wife forever releases, relinquishes, and renounces any interest in such income, changes, mutations, and increases in kind or in value derived from Husband's separate property, including all property acquired as a result of the reinvestment of income from his separate property, in consideration of Husband's reciprocal agreement and release, relinquishment, and renunciation. Notwithstanding the preceding language in this paragraph, future earnings and income arising from Husband's separate property as listed in Schedule C will be the community property of the parties after the date of the execution of this agreement.

INCOME FROM WIFE'S SEPARATE PROPERTY

Except as noted below, Husband agrees that all income, changes, mutations, and increases in kind or in value of Wife's separate property following the execution of this agreement and all property that she may hereafter acquire, including all property acquired as a result of the reinvestment of income from her separate property, will be the separate property of Wife. Income from separate property includes but is not limited to interest, rents, royalties, stocks, splits, and dividends. Except as noted below, Husband forever releases, relinquishes, and renounces any interest in such income, changes, mutations, and increases in kind or in value derived from Wife's separate property, including all property acquired as a result of the reinvestment of income from her separate property, in consideration of Wife's reciprocal agreement and release, relinquishment, and renunciation. Notwithstanding the preceding language in this paragraph, future earnings and income arising from Wife's separate property as listed in Schedule D will be the community property of the parties after the date of the execution of this agreement.

WAIVER OF CLAIMS

Each party agrees that the property being partitioned and exchanged between the parties as their respective separate property will be free from all claims that the other party may have before the date of this agreement, as well as all claims that may arise following the execution of this agreement. Any money used for the benefit of the other party will be presumed to be a gift to the other party, as contrasted with a payment for which reimbursement or repayment is later expected, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. This waiver applies during the lifetime of both parties, as well as on the death of either or both parties. This waiver extends to any rights, whether choate or inchoate, that may arise under the laws of Texas or any other jurisdiction. Each party further agrees that, by signing this agreement and accepting any benefit whatsoever under it, he or she is estopped from making any claim of any kind at any time to any separate property or the separate estate of the other party, except as may expressly be provided for in this agreement.

IV.

MANAGEMENT OF PROPERTIES

Each party has the full, free, and unrestricted right to manage the separate property over which he or she has control under section 3.101 of the Texas Family Code or succeeding provisions of similar import and nature, including without limitation the right to convey or encumber the property; to dispose of it by sale, gift, or otherwise; and to deal with it without taking into consideration any rights or interests of the other party. If the joinder of JOE E. MUIRHEAD or MARY LEE MUIRHEAD ("joining party") should be required by law in connection with the execution of any document by the other party with respect to the separate property of the other party, on request and from time to time, the joining party must execute all such documents necessary to effect the desires of the other party, including gift tax returns, but without any personal liability of the joining party. Neither party has the authority to encumber or dispose of the other party's separate property without the other party's express written consent. Notwithstanding any of the provisions set forth in this section 4.1, the parties agree that any gift in excess of the annual gift tax exclusion that would be applied to either party's unified lifetime credit must be consented to in writing by the parties before the making of the gift.

That the parties specifically agree that the following events shall under no circumstances be evidence of any intention by either party to alter the terms of this agreement by the following:

- a. The filing of joint tax returns;
- b. The taking of title of property in joint tenancy or in any other joint form;
- c. The designation of one party by the other as beneficiary of his or her

- d. estate or as a trustee or any form of fiduciary;
The commingling by one party of his or her separate funds or property with the separate funds or property of the other;
- e. The furnishing of time, toil and talent of one party to enhance the separate property of the other party;
- f. The pledging of lending of the joint, separate or community credit of one or both parties for the benefit of the other parties separate estate or for the community estate;
- g. Any oral statement by either party;
- h. Any written statement by either party other than an expressed written statement changing separately owned property into jointly owned property;
- i. The payment from the funds of either party of either obligations including, but not limited to, the payment of mortgages, interests, or real property taxes, repairs or improvements on a separately or jointly held residence; and/or
- j. The joint occupation of a separately owned residence, even though designated as a homestead.

V.

NO REIMBURSEMENT CLAIMS

Husband waives the right to assert any claim for reimbursement that he might presently or in the future have on behalf of or against the community estate. Husband further waives the right to assert any claim for reimbursement that he might presently or in the future have against the separate estate of Wife.

Wife waives the right to assert any claim for reimbursement that she might presently or in the future have on behalf of or against the community estate. Wife further waives the right to assert any claim for reimbursement that she might presently or in the future have against the separate estate of Husband, save for the exclusion in schedule B.

VI.

UNDISCLOSED PROPERTY

All community property not listed in any schedule attached to this agreement is owned by the parties as equal cotenants with right of survivorship. Each party hereby grants, conveys, and assigns to the other party an undivided one-half interest in any such unlisted community property owned in the name of the granting party. Each party has attested to the validity of the list of properties exchanged in preparation for this agreement and avers that the property, assets and indebtedness conveyed to the other party is complete. Each party agrees that should the list be found to be incomplete the benefit will be granted to the opposing party.

VII.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

Each party has carefully read this agreement, including all schedules attached to it and other documents to which it refers, and has executed it in reliance on the party's own judgment. This agreement expresses the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject it purports to cover.

INCORPORATION OF SCHEDULES

All schedules and other instruments referred to in this agreement are incorporated into this agreement as completely as if they were copied verbatim in the body of it.

PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If any provision of this agreement is for any reason found to be unenforceable, all other provisions nonetheless remain enforceable.

ENFORCEABILITY

This agreement may be enforced by suit in law or equity by either of the parties or by their heirs, executors, attorneys, or assigns. Each party agrees that, by signing this agreement and accepting any benefit whatsoever under it, he or she is estopped and barred from making any claim of any kind at any time to any separate property or the separate estate of the other party or to any property described in this agreement as being the separate property of the other party. Each party waives his or her right to make claims to any separate property of the other party or to any property designated as belonging to the separate estate of the other party, whether the property is acquired before or after this agreement is signed.

AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION

This agreement may be waived, abandoned, modified, amended, discharged, or terminated only by a written instrument signed by both parties that specifically identifies the waiver, abandonment, modification, amendment, discharge, or termination.

EFFECTIVE DATE

This agreement takes effect when it is executed by both parties and will remain in effect even when the parties' marriage is dissolved by death or otherwise.

EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

Each party agrees to cooperate fully with the other in performing all acts and in executing, acknowledging, and delivering all instruments and documents required to accomplish the intent of this agreement, including but not limited to deeds, assignments, and promissory notes. Each party agrees to execute all documents required to accomplish the intent of this agreement within fourteen days after the documents are presented to the party for execution.

If either party fails on demand to comply with this provision and purpose necessary to effectuate the provisions and purposes this agreement and fails to comply with this provision, that party shall pay the other all attorney's fees, costs and other expenses reasonably incurred as a result of such failure.

This agreement shall be binding on all and shall inure to the benefit of the respective legatees, devisees, heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and successors in interest of the parties of this Agreement.

This agreement shall be governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas and Montgomery County shall be the proper venue.

This agreement is the result from the joint efforts of both parties. This Agreement should be interpreted fairly and simply and not strictly for or against either of the parties.

This agreement supercedes any and all other agreements, either oral or in writing, or implied between the parties relating to the rights and liabilities arising out of their marriage and consists of the entire agreement of the parties.

This agreement may be amended and modified only by written agreement signed by both parties and sworn to before a notary public and inures to the benefit of the respective legatees, devisees, heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and successors in interest of the parties to this Agreement.

ATTORNEY'S FEES AND EXPENSES FOR ENFORCEMENT

If either party defaults in performing any obligation under this agreement so that the other party is required to engage the services of an attorney for enforcement or relief, or if either party brings an action or other proceeding to enforce this agreement or to enforce any judgment, decree, or order made by a court in connection with this agreement, the defaulting party must pay all reasonable attorney's fees, expert's fees, and other costs of the other party.

WAIVER OF BREACH OR TERM

The waiver of any breach of any provision of this agreement does not waive any other breach of that or any other provision. Waiver of any term of this agreement may be accomplished only concerning future performance and only by a written instrument signed by both parties expressly stating the provisions waived.

TITLES AND CAPTIONS

Article headings, titles, and captions contained in this agreement are merely for reference and do not define, limit, extend, or describe the scope of this agreement or any provision.

Execution and delivery of other documents: Each of the parties shall on demand execute and deliver to the other any and all documents, deeds, assignments, consents to change beneficiaries, tax returns, and other documents, and do or cause to be done any acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this agreement. If either party fails on demand to comply with this provision, that party shall pay to the other all attorney's fees, costs, and other expenses incurred as a result of such failure. This agreement shall operate as a muniment of title authorizing the person entitled to property herein to sign any and all documents that effectuate the terms of the property division contained herein.
