ATTORNEYS FOR CITY OF AUSTIN

I. INSTRUCTIONS

These interrogatories are served pursuant to the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall be answered under oath within twenty (20) days after the date of service. In answering these interrogatories, you are required to furnish all non-privileged information that is available or subject to reasonable inquiry by you, your attorneys, officers, agents, advisors, experts, or other persons directly or indirectly in your employment or control. If these interrogatories cannot be answered in full, you are required to answer them to the extent possible, and specify the reason for your inability to answer the remainder.

Pursuant to Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 197, your duty to answer these interrogatories is ongoing. You are required by law to seasonably supplement or correct your responses with new information, whenever appropriate.

Each interrogatory herein is followed by space for your answer. You must answer in the space provided, or, if the provided space is insufficient for your answer, you must set forth each interrogatory immediately preceding your answer to it. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from business records or other documents in your possession, in lieu of a written answer to the interrogatory, you may submit the document itself, pursuant to Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

The singular shall be deemed to include the plural and vice versa so as to bring within the scope of this request all documents which might otherwise be construed to be outside the scope.

Each interrogatory to which no objection is interposed shall be answered separately and fully in writing, and under oath. If any response is withheld under a claim of privilege, please provide the following information with respect to any such response so as to aid the Court and the parties hereto in determining the validity of the claim of privilege, objection or other protection:

- a. The identity and job title of the person(s) who prepared the response;
- b. The basis on which any privilege or other protection is claimed; and
- c. The statute, rule, or decision, which is claimed to give rise to the privilege.

In responding to each interrogatory state whether the information furnished is within the personal knowledge of the person answering and, if not, the name of each person to whom the information is a matter of personal knowledge.

If you maintain that any document or record which refers or relates to anything about which these interrogatories ask has been destroyed, set forth the contents of said document, the location of any copies of said document, the date of such destruction and whether or not the destruction was intentional or accidental. If intentional, state the name of the person who ordered or authorized the destruction.
