ORDER NO. 5
REVISING SCHEDULE

On May 10, 2004, the Administrative Law Judge issued an order abating the procedural schedule in SOAH Docket No. 582-04-2730. That docket had been set on a concurrent schedule with these dockets. Subsequently, the Executive Director (ED) filed a motion to extend the procedural deadlines in these cases by one week to allow the ED to obtain discovery from the City of Fate while it is still a party to the proceedings. In the motion, the ED represents that all parties have been contacted (except Royse City, which the ED has attempted to contact but was unsuccessful) and agree to the motion. After considering the motion, the Administrative Law Judge finds it has merit and should be granted. Moreover, because of the short time period involved, the ALJ finds it appropriate to rule on the motion prior to the expiration of the full response time period. Accordingly, it is ordered that the following deadlines shall now govern this case:¹

- May 17, 2004: Last day to propound written discovery on the parties
- June 10, 2004: All discovery responses and supplementation due
- June 17, 2004: All Applicants' prefiled direct testimony due

¹ Unless specifically modified herein, the schedule and procedures set forth in Order No. 3 remain in effect.

In accordance with the schedule above, the time for responding to discovery requests may be less than 30 days, depending upon when the discovery requests are submitted, but in no event is it less than 24 days.
