Dear Judge Bennett:

The City of Royse City ("City") is in receipt of an email from Mr. Marc Zeppa, counsel for Verandah Communities, LP ("Verandah") and Parker Creek Estates, L.P. ("Parker Creek"), wherein Mr. Zeppa has identified that his schedule has changed and he is now available on February 13, 2004, for a Preliminary Hearing in the City of Fate ("Fate") CCN application, see referenced email attached as "Attachment A". As you requested, we are notifying you of this change in schedules which should allow expedited consideration of the Fate Application.

Sincerely,

Kerry E. Russell

Subject: Royse City, Fate, Verandah & Parker Creek Scheduling (1-5-04)

Upon returning to my office I was able to check the last revised scheduling order in the Quadvest rate case against my Palm Pilot and desk computer and found that my computers were in error. I do not have the scheduling conflict during the last two weeks of February that I thought that I did.

The State Bar Water Rights Seminar is in San Antonio on Thursday and Friday February 26 and 27 and I would like to avoid these days. I am scheduled to instruct at a sliding series off seminars Tuesday through Friday the preceding week so Monday February 23 through Wednesday February 25th are the best days for me. I can be available the week before if I shuffle my lecture times.
