11. Understanding that most, if not all, of the intervenors do not want the transmission line on their property, if the transmission line is nonetheless routed on your property by Order of the Commission, please identify the location for the right-of-way that would be least offensive to you. Please use a map to show the location.

RESPONSE: Any location of the electric transmission line near the property owned by the Lindendale Community Improvement Association and the members of this community would be offensive and unwanted, and as such, at this time I am unable to readily identify a less-offensive or otherwise desirable location for the line.
