SOAH ORDER NO. 2
GRANTING MOTION TO ABATE

On February 2, 2015, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) convened the prehearing conference on the above Ratepayers' appeal of the wholesale water rates set by the City of Corsicana. The Ratepayers were represented by attorneys Schuyler B. Marshall and Geoffrey P. Kirshbaum. The City was represented by attorneys J. Kay Trostle and Miguel A. Huerta. The Staff of the Public Utility Commission of Texas was represented by attorneys Jessica L. Morgan and Stephen Mack.

At the beginning of the hearing, the Ratepayers requested an abatement of this case until the First Court of Appeals resolved an appeal of a TCEQ decision in a prior case on the City's 2009 wholesale water rates. Staff and the City had no opposition to an indefinite abatement.

Therefore, the ALJ grants the request and abates this case. The case will remain abated until the conclusion of the litigation in the First Court of Appeals. At that time, the Ratepayers will confer with the other parties to discuss how this case should proceed and then notify the ALJ accordingly.

SIGNED February 3, 2015.
