REPLY TO PROSPER INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT'S RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS INTERVENORS

COMES NOW, Prosper Independent School District ("Prosper ISD"), by and through its attorney, and files its Reply to Denton County Fresh Water Supply District No. 10's ("Applicant") Reply to Prosper ISD's Response to Motion to Dismiss Intervenor.

Prosper ISD should remain a party in this proceeding. Prosper ISD is an affected person under the TCEQ rules. The Applicant contends that because Prosper ISD does not currently have any real property interest at this time and therefore Prosper ISD has no basis to make a standing claim. The Applicant argues that it is sheer speculation that Prosper ISD schools will be built within the amended service area. It could also be argued that it is sheer speculation that there will be no schools built within the amended service area. The Applicant can not claim for certain that there will be no Prosper ISD schools built in the amended service area. It is more likely that there will be one or two schools built in the amended service area. Mr. Watkins' claims are not based on mere speculation. Mr. Watkins' claims are based on his experience. Mr. Watkins has served as Superintendent for one year at Prosper ISD, two years as Superintendent for Jarrell and 10 years in Mt. Pleasant as Assistant Superintendent and Principal. Based on Mr. Watkins' experience, he anticipates that there will be a need for one or two schools to be
