PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF TEXAS AUG 26 2016 2:33 PM PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION FILING CLERK

ORDER NO. 1 PROVIDING NOTICE AND REQUIRING JOINT PROPOSED ORDER

On July 6, 2016, Quadvest, L.P. (Quadvest) filed a notice of intent, pursuant to Tex. Water Code § 13.254 (TWC) and 16 Tex. Admin. Code § 24.113, to provide service to area decertified from H-M-W Special Utility District's (H-M-W SUD's) water certificate of convenience (CCN) No. 10342 in Montgomery County.

On July 26, 2016, Quadvest filed an affidavit from the President of H-M-W SUD confirming adequate compensation for any property rendered useless or valueless as a result of the decertification of real property owned by LGI Homes from H-W-W SUD's CCN. The parties agreed that the compensation is reasonable and that there is no other property at issue as a result of the decertification.

The notice included with this Order will appear in the September 9, 2016, issue of the Texas Register.

So that this proceeding may continue to final resolution, Quadvest and H-M-W SUD shall file, on or before September 13, 2016, (1) a list of items for admission into evidence, and (2) a joint proposed order, including findings of fact, conclusions of law, and ordering paragraphs.

SIGNED AT AUSTIN, TEXAS the 26th day of August 2016.
