2013. He was previously employed with the Maverick County Sheriff's Office. The Eagle Pass native said he has spent most of his adult life in Uvalde.

Smith owns and operates Texas Combat Arms LLC, a small business in Uvalde which supplies M4 rifles. In addition to running a gun shop and his employment with UFD, Smith also works various security jobs along with performing narcotic searches for school districts. The latter is how he came to purchase Zibo, a 2-year-old German Shepherd from the neighborhood.

Smith said he purchased the police dog to perform searches, a side job not affiliated with the Uvalde Police Department.

"I bought him for my personal business and the department saw how well trained he is and realized that he would be an asset to the department," Smith said.

Zibo was trained through Worldwide Canine Inc. out of Spring Branch. The organization specializes in the training and utilization of professional working dogs, including police dogs for patrol, detection, and tracking.

There, Zibo was trained to recognize the scent of narcotics and drug paraphernalia.

While the volunteers Zibo obeys include: bite, release, jump, sit, track, and guard.

Smith said he also went through a three-week training period with Zibo.

"I've had him two years. My training was three weeks, that is where you bond with your K-9," Smith said.

Smith said Zibo is his partner and is even needed in a partner, he said.

The pair began patrolling together last Friday. As the only members of the K-9 unit in Uvalde, the duo is on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and is also available to assist other agencies in the area if needed.

Notice of Application to Extend Facilities Rental Tariffs

On August 12, 2016, AEP Texas Central Company (TCC) and AEP Texas North Company (TNC) (jointly, the Companies) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to extend their Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Tariffs an additional three years, to January 1, 2020. The Companies do not propose to change the terms of the tariffs or the current pricing in this docket. Sections 14.001, 39.001 and 39.051 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act and Sections 25.341 through 25.343 of 16 Tex. Admin. Code provide for the Commission to authorize a utility to petition to provide Facilities Rental Services if such services are not widely available to customers in an area. TCC and TNC received Commission approval to provide such services until January 1, 2017 in Docket No. 41799. The Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Services are contained in Section 6.1.2.3.6, 6.1.3.3.6 and 6.1.4.3.6 of the Companies' Tariffs for Retail Delivery Service.

The Companies have proposed an effective date of January 1, 2017, at which time the proposed tariffs will be deemed approved if no objection is filed with the Commission. Only customers currently taking service under the existing tariffs, as well as the Retail Electric Providers servicing those customers, are affected by this application. Those affected customers take delivery service under Distribution Service Schedule 6.1.1.1.4 Primary Voltage Service, and are located throughout the service areas of TCC and TNC. This filing has been assigned PUC Docket No. 46284.

The deadline for filing a motion to intervene in this proceeding is September 30, 2016. Persons who wish to intervene in the proceeding or comment upon the action should contact the Public Utility Commission of Texas, P.O. Box 13326, Austin, Texas 78711-3326. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission of Texas at (512) 936-7120 or (888) 782-4477. Hearing- and speech-impaired individuals with text telephones (TTY) may contact the Commission at (512) 936-7136. Persons with questions or who want more information on this petition may contact AEP Texas Central Company, 539 North Caranahua Street, Corpus Christi, Texas 78401 or call (877) 373-4858 during normal business hours.

HOTEL - FROM A1

Mañá in 1996 and bought the building shortly after arriving in town. But he didn't yet have any aspirations for the space beyond meeting it.

"I remediated it and fixed it up, and we started to use other tenants, but there were no ideas for doing this. I guess I started thinking about [the hotel] four or five years ago," he said. "I just thought it would be nice to do something that was local and authentic to the town. This was the only available space where we could do something in the downtown district, and I thought it would be nice to have something close on Highland Avenue with the density that causes a real downtown neighborhood."

The history of the Hotel Saint George goes back nearly as long as the history of Mañá itself. Built in 1884, it was named after a famous hotel in Europe. It operated through the 1920s until it was damaged in a fire and subsequently demolished. The existing structure was constructed in 1929, primarily as a seasonal building.

"If you look at the hotel building across the street, or the Knight Building, those were all built as single story buildings to which you would later add a second story. That is what was intended for this building. These big columns and beams are all reinforced concrete to support an addition above it," he said.

Crowley explained how everything in the building was aesthetically tied to Mañá. He noted the brick in the walls and the concrete floors and ceilings were original to the building.

"The light fixtures were designed and made here in Mañá, and the metal sliding doors were made by Max White, a lifelong Mañá resident," he said. "All of the things hanging on the walls have a connection to Mañá. The building had a marble volcano - marble from Cathedral Mountains - which was found beneath the plaster during the demolition, and we saved it to put in the bar top."

Patrons can enjoy drinks at Bar Saint George and eat outside at La Ventura, which serves up rustic, American-style cuisine with French and Italian flavors. The hotel is also home to the Mañá Book Company, which features a wide assortment of books and gifts.

Crowley is currently remodeling the building across the street, which serves as the hotel's guest space, and houses a pool and other amenities, with the aim to have it ready by spring 2017.

"We're organizing ping pong and Zumba classes, and we've also already done some weddings and anniversary parties," he said.

For information and booking, call 432-729-3700, or book online at alpineavalanche.com. The Hotel Saint George is located at 105 S. Highland Avenue, Mañá, 79643.

garden earlier this year, which she said is a couple volunteer maintainers.

"Kids just love gardens," Sneek said.

Involving young children in the process gives them experience and away from them. They learn where food comes from, how plants grow and about pollination. "They may not understand the details, but they experience names at work," said Sneek.

Occasionally, children, the popular and prolific cherry tomatoes, watermelons, cantaloupes, peaches and a money garden were planted for the end of production.

the spring and summer seasons. The money garden has plants that are fun to smell and touch, like lavender, mint, dill and basil.

"We have some watermelon, cantaloupes and cucumbers. It's very interesting to know the kids get fresh, wonderful produce and experience the joy of being in the garden."

Volunteer Macey Shivers accompanied children to the garden for a 30-minute visit. She often has an activity prepared. On a recent visit, the 3-year-old child decorated fairy wands with flower petals and leaves.

At the end of the day, the children were given fall plants will be incorporated. "Gardening in Texas is great because you can garden all year round," Sneek said.

The children compiled a list of what they would like to plant, including sugar snap peas, beets, carrots, Swiss chard, pumpkins, squash and more. That's right - vegetables!

Sneek might have discovered the secret to getting kids to enjoy vegetables - let them grow and pick them themselves. "Kids that don't think broccoli is good will usually fight over it if they had a hand in growing it," said Sneek.

The center tries to keep children's interest in vegetables by having a garden tour.

like the annual Endicott Spring Supper very important. Sneek also welcomed volunteers. "It would be wonderful to have a list of interested people available to maintain and water the garden," Sneek said.

The center is currently searching for substitute teachers and a new director, as Sneek resigns from the position in September. "It's a rewarding and demanding job. We're hoping to get funding that would allow for a substitute director," she said.

David Charles Parks, Sr., 82, of Odessa, Texas, died peacefully in his sleep on Aug. 11, 2016. He was born Dec. 11, 1923, in County, Texas, Northern Ireland. He was predeceased by his parents, Robert E. Parks and Mary Frances Parks; his brother, Jack Parks; and his wife of 39 years, Margorie Ruth Parks; and his granddaughters, Deborah Parks and Deborah Parks.

David's family came to western Pennsylvania where he was about 2 years old. He attended Chandler school, a one-room schoolhouse, for the first eight grades. He earned a grade being sick with rheumatic fever, and because of his ill health, his first teacher called him was David. Later he was able to attend grade before attending Butler High where he met his future wife, Margorie.

After graduation, he joined the Army, and enjoyed telling the story of how fast he became a soldier when the captain learned he was born in Ireland. After being wounded and discharged with a Purple Heart, he earned his high school credential at Margorie Bryson in 1946 in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

FBI helping with probe of destroyed Houston-area evidence

BY JUAN A. LOZANO
ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOUSTON (AP) — The FBI is working with local authorities investigating the destruction by a deputy constable of possibly up to more than 20,000 pieces of evidence in Houston-area cases, an agency spokeswoman said Wednesday.

Last week, Harris County District Attorney Devon Anderson announced that Christopher Hess, formerly with the Harris County Precinct 4 Constable's Office, had destroyed evidence while cleaning out a cramped evidence room.

Anderson has said that besides the nearly 150 cases that have been dismissed, more than 1,000 others are being reviewed.

FBI spokeswoman Shazna Dunlap said her agency has not joined the local probe but "are aware of the allegations, and are coordinating with local authorities."

"If in the course of the local investigation, additional information arises indicating potential federal criminal violations, the FBI will take appropriate action," she said.

Harris County Precinct 4 Constable Mark Herman blamed the evidence destruction on his former worker Hess, whom he called a "rogue employee" and that his office and other workers in general have done things the right way.

"We handled the problem. The problem was one employee. That employee has been fired," he said. "Any investigation that may come out of this we welcome."

An attorney for Hess, Kurt Springer, didn't immediately return a call seeking comment Wednesday. But last week, Springer said Hess was only following orders when he cleaned out the property room.

Meanwhile, a suburban Houston man whose case is one of the nearly 150 that have already been dismissed filed a lawsuit Tuesday against Harris County and Anderson, alleging malicious prosecution and civil rights violations.

David Bellamy, 40, had his drug case dismissed last month after his defense attorney, Paul Morgan, discovered that evidence in his case had been destroyed.

On Monday, Morgan sent a letter to the U.S. Attorney's Office in Houston, asking it to investigate the evidence destruction.

Joe Jones, Bellamy's attorney in the lawsuit, said that before the dismissal of charges his client — who maintained his innocence — was pressured by prosecutors to accept a plea agreement for six years for a case in which there was no evidence.

"It makes me sick ... People that are supposed to protect our justice system, the very people that we entrust and elect that are corrupting it," Jones said. "This is how innocent people end up in prison."

Anderson has said her office has been immediately notifying defense attorneys as soon as it identifies problem cases.

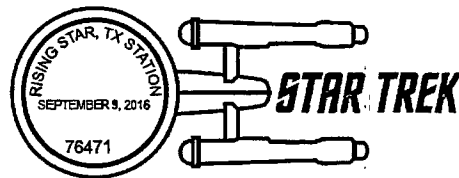

Prosecutors are still trying to determine how much evidence has been destroyed — possibly going back to 2007 — and how many cases will ultimately be affected, she said.

Herman said an ongoing review by his agency found that 7,761 items were destroyed on Jan. 15 and out of that, 861 items were traced back to 470 open cases. He said the majority of the items destroyed in January — 6,900 — traced back to closed cases.

"A large majority of our destruction was done the proper way," he said.

Jeff McShan, a spokesman for Anderson, said his office has asked Herman to conduct an independent audit because prosecutors have been getting incomplete, inconsistent numbers on how much evidence has been destroyed.

This story has been corrected to clarify that FBI says it has not joined local investigation but would take appropriate action if the local probe uncovers potential federal crimes.

Texas asks state Supreme Court to block lawsuit

BY JIM VERTUNO
ASSOCIATED PRESS

AUSTIN (AP) — The University of Texas recently asked the state Supreme Court to block a sex and race discrimination lawsuit filed by former women's track coach Bev Kearney, who was forced out in 2013 after the school learned about a romantic relationship with one of her athletes a decade earlier.

University lawyers argued in an Aug. 26 filing that Kearney hasn't shown she was treated differently than someone in a similar position, and that allowing the case to continue would rewrite the standards for when state agencies could be sued. Two lower courts have allowed Kearney's case to proceed.

Kearney sued in 2014, arguing that as a black woman, she was held to a tougher standard than a white male coach or other school officials who she alleges were in relationships with subordinates.

Shortly after she resigned under pressure of being fired, Texas revealed that former assistant football coach Major Applewhite was reprimanded, but not fired, for a relationship with a female student trainer on a 2009 bowl trip. Applewhite was later promoted and given pay raises. He stayed on the Texas staff until head coach Mack Brown was forced out after the 2013 season. Applewhite is now the offensive coordinator at the University of Houston.

The state Supreme Court has not yet decided whether it will consider the university's appeal.

The case has "potentially exposed UT to years of defensive litigation in a case where the pleadings have failed the most minimal tests imposed by law," university lawyers wrote in their appeal. "If Kearney was in fact the victim of the discrimination she claims, it would not be difficult for her to identify similarly situated employees treated differently from her."

University lawyers argued Kearney hasn't shown how any of the alleged relationships raises in her lawsuit were "comparable in seriousness to Kearney's conduct."

Texas officials insist Kearney "crossed the line" of behavior for a coach and that it acted appropriately in forcing her out.

Eastland County sheriff's deputy, 73, dies in head-on crash

EASTLAND (AP) — A West Texas sheriff's deputy has been killed in a head-on collision while driving his SUV patrol vehicle to work.

The Texas Department of Public Safety says 73-year-old Eastland County sheriff's Deputy Kenneth Malby died in the accident around 8 a.m. Wednesday.

The DPS says a pickup truck driven by 23-year-old Colton James Conger of Eastland was enroute on Farm Road 570 when he swerved to avoid another vehicle and slammed head-on into Malby's sport utility vehicle.

Sheriff Wayne Bradford says Malby, who lived near Desdemona, was on duty and driving to work when the wreck happened. The retired Dallas police officer died at the scene.

Competency evaluation done for deputy slaying suspect

ton man accused of fatally shooting a sheriff's deputy at a gas station last year is set to return to court following the completion of a competency evaluation after his stay at a state mental hospital.

Court records show that a sealed competency evaluation of Shannon Miles was filed Wednesday.

Miles has spent the last several months at the North Texas State Hospital after he was ruled incompetent to stand trial for the August 2015 killing of Deputy Darren Conforth, who was shot 15 times while refueling his patrol car.

West to talk about McKinstry contract, other topics at chamber luncheon

Brown County Judge Ray West stands near the county annex building, which is still under construction and located near the courthouse.

BY STEVE NASH
BROWNWOOD BULLETIN
steve.nash@brownwoodbulletin.com

Walking through the unoccupied, unfinished rooms of the new courthouse annex building recently, Brown County Judge Ray West said the controversial building — being built as part of the county's contract with the McKinstry company — will be among his topics at the Brownwood Area Chamber of Commerce monthly luncheon Friday.

No one was working when West took a visitor through the building's interior, pointing out the rooms that will include storage and space for the treasurer's office and elections office. West wasn't sure why no one had been working at the building for the past several days, and he didn't know when the building will be completed.

West said he planned to call a McKinstry representative to find out why no work was being done. That did not dampen West's belief in validity of the McKinstry contract and the building, which has drawn controversy from critics who say the contract is too expensive, and the county should have given local contractors the chance to bid on the project. The building is located off Risk Avenue and a few hundred yards from the north side of the courthouse.

Commissioners earlier authorized the issuance of $6.57 million in certificates of obligation for an Energy Savings Performance Contract with McKinstry. The contract includes about $1 million for the construction of the new building.

The county's proposed tax rate for the 2016-17 fiscal year is 60.93 cents per $100 valuation, up from the current rate of 59.55 cents. The debt service portion of the tax rate is increasing to pay the debt on the McKinstry contract, West said.

West said McKinstry has a state contract so "you don't have to go out for bids on a project like this."

When reminded that critics of the project have said the county could have created work for local contractors, West said there are "no local general contractors who have a state permit to do this."

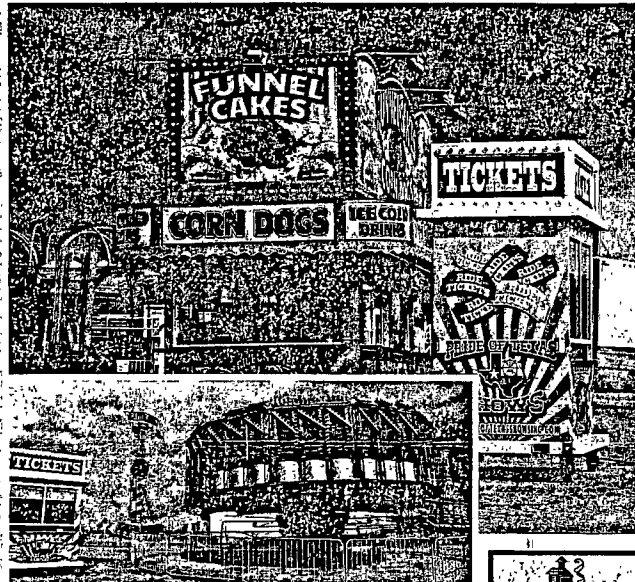

West said he doesn't think the building will be ugly. The comment was in response to a citizen who earlier referred to the building as an "ugly brick building."

"I think it's going to look nice," West said. "It's going to be very conservative, very conventional. But it's not a house, and it's not a business. It's a government building and I want it to complement the look of the courthouse. The county will be proud of it. It will be highly functional and it will allow us to give the Adams Street Community Center back to the city."

West was referring to space in the Adams Street Community Center the county uses to house the elections office.

Another new addition to the Hot Dog Eating and Fried Pie Eating contests, and a U.S. Army recruiter will be on site as well with a variety of interactive activities in which to partake.

Perhaps the biggest growth this year will take place in the demos and kids areas.

"It's probably double as far as demos and the kids area," said Melissa Sanderson, Administrative Assistant for the Early Chamber of Commerce. Included in the kids area will be a petting zoo, ring toss, sack race, three-legged race, corn tub, bag toss and a dunking booth, among other activities.

As for the demos, TDOT will be on hand with roll over vehicles. There will also be beekeeping, yarn spinning, stone carving arrowheads, camels and a survival area. Back for the fourth year is the 5K Run or 10K and the barbecue cookoff also returns, further expanding the variety of events planned for the weekend.

Miraculous Prayer
Dear Heart of Jesus, in the past I have asked for favors. This time I ask you this very special on (mention favor) Take it dear Jesus and place it within your own broken heart where your father sees it, then in your merciful eyes it will become your favor not mine. Amen. Say this prayer for 3 days, promise publication and favor will be granted. Never known to fail. JUS

Sections 14.001, 39.001 and 39.051 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act and Sections 25.341 through 25.343 of 16 Tex. Admin. Code provide for the Commission to authorize a utility to petition to provide Facilities Rental Services if such services are not widely available to customers in an area. TCC and TNC received Commission approval to provide such services until January 1, 2017 in Docket No. 41799. The Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Services are contained in Section 6.1.2.3.6, 6.1.3.3.6 and 6.1.4.3.6 of the Companies' Tariffs for Retail Delivery Service.

Only customers currently taking service under the existing tariffs, as well as the Retail Electric Providers serving those customers, are affected by this application. Those affected customers take delivery service under Distribution Service Schedule 6.1.1.1.4 Primary Voltage Service, and are located throughout the service areas of TCC and TNC. This filing has been assigned PUC Docket No. 46284.

ment made for a 4,100 foot lateral are estimated to be approximately $4 million per well in normally pressured settings and $6 million per well in over-pressured settings.

Apache has drilled 19 wells in the play, with nine currently producing in limited quantities due to infrastructure constraints. This includes six wells in the Woodford, one well in the Barnett and one well each in the shallower Wolfcamp and Bone Springs oil formations.

"Today's announcement is the culmination of more than two years of hard work by the Apache team. While other companies have focused on acquisitions during the downturn, we took a contrarian approach and focused on organic growth opportunities. These efforts have resulted in the identification of an immense resource that we believe will deliver significant value for our shareholders for many years," said John J. Christmann IV, Apache's chief executive officer and president.

"We are incredibly excited about the Alpine High play and its large inventory of repeatable, high-value drilling opportunities. We have discovered low-risk locations in the Woodford and Barnett formations alone, and we are looking forward to further delineating what we believe will be a significant number of oil-prone locations in the Pennsylvania, Wolfcamp and Bone Springs."

In addition to providing details on Apache's Alpine High discovery, the company is also providing an update today on its Midland Basin and other Delaware Basin assets, including strong comparative well results and future drilling locations.

"Our announcement today represents a significant addition to our already deep and highly economic Permian Basin position. With the contribution of world-class international and North American assets, Apache clearly has more profitable-growth opportunities than at any other time in the company's 60-year history," Christmann concluded.

To accelerate the delineation and development of the Alpine High play, Apache is increasing its 2016 capital spending by approximately $200 million for the year and raising its full-year capital guidance to approximately $2 billion. Capital spending on the Alpine High play in 2016 will represent more than 25 percent of Apache's total capital spending program.

Francell to address historical society Monday

FORT DAVIS - Jeff Davis County Commissioner Larry Francell of Fort Davis, author and longtime director of museums who is retired from the Museum of the Big Bend at Sul Ross State University, will discuss the "Almost Comprehensive Fort Davis Bookshelf" Monday, Sept. 19.

"Larry will use his many, many, many decades in the history business to explain what books you should read to become an expert on local history, and what nonsensical confabulations you should laugh at," said Fort Davis Historical Society's Director of Seminars Rick Draheim.

"And what better place should there be to learn about books than the Jeff Davis County Library at 6:30 p.m.?"

Shooting . . . From page one

According to the Alpine Police Department, "the 14-year-old Alpine High School freshman intended to shoot her teenage stepbrother and then take her own life last week, with a semi-automatic handgun she brought from home."

Police did not disclose the names of the students.

The APD confirmed that investigators determined the suspect brought a Kahr model CW9 9 mm semi-automatic handgun in her backpack to kill her 14-year-old stepbrother.

and then turn the gun on herself.

Alpine police also said that the 14-year-old shooter was never bullied, and that bullying played no role in the incident.

There was only one 18-round ammunition magazine the girl had with her. The teenage suspect at about 8:54 a.m. Sep. 8 entered a girl's restroom located in the hallway near the school's band hall.

Moments later, after walking into the restroom and surprising the younger girl, the 17-year-old junior girl ducked, was struck once by a gunshot in an unspecified part of her body and bolted from the girl's restroom to safety under a volley of gunfire.

Authorities reported that neither the teenage shooter nor the 17-year-old junior knew each other. The older teen was released from the hospital, authorities said.

Investigators with the APD believe there is no longer any threat to students, faculty or staff at the Alpine Independent School District in relation to the incident.

All 290 students at Alpine High School were interviewed by investigators, the APD's press statement read.

Museum of the Big Bend honors benefactors

Leighton and Jim Donnell at art opening, dinner

BIG BEND - A dinner honoring benefactors Leighton and Jim Donnell and the opening of a Western Art collection will be featured events at the Museum of the Big Bend, Sep. 16-17.

On Friday evening, the third annual Heritage Dinner, honoring the Donnells of Marfa and Fowlerston, will be at the Richey Brothers Building of the Gage Hotel in Marathon.

Tickets for the 6 p.m. event are $125 per person and are available by calling (432) 837-8143.

The Heritage Dinner is an annual fundraising event that supports the exhibits and programming at the Museum of the Big Bend and each year honors an individual or individuals that have made a significant contribution to the heritage, culture and history of the region and the museum.

On Saturday, Sept. 17, A Feeling of Humanity: Western Art From The Ken Ratner Collection, will open in the main gallery of the Museum, located on the Sul Ross State University campus.

The exhibition will feature 70 works by both contemporary artists along with works by early 20th century painters including Kenneth Miller Adams, John French, Boardman Robinson, Georges Schreiber and Bettina Steinke. This exhibit explores and celebrates the beautiful in the ordinary.

Saturday, Sept. 17 activities will begin with Morning Gallery Talks, 10 a.m.-noon.

Ratner will present "Forming the Feeling of Humanity Collection," followed by exhibit artist Erin Hansen, Los Angeles, CA, who will make a powerpoint presentation on her painting style known as "Open Impressionism."

The opening reception for the show is scheduled from 6-8 p.m. All Saturday events are free and open to the public.

In 2014, museum director Liz Jackson and museum curator Mary Bones traveled to New York City to meet with Ratner to discuss the potential of exhibiting his unique collection at the Museum of the Big Bend. Enamored by Ratner's story and collection, Jackson said, "We knew that his collection would be an extraordinary exhibit that we could bring to our patrons, visitors and community."

Growing up in a Harlem housing project, Ratner came from very humble beginnings. As a young boy, he felt empathy for the poor, the homeless, and those who lived on the edge.

These experiences shaped both his career and the art that he collected. He was drawn to humanity. He initially collected works by the Ashcan School of artists—urban realists who documented street scenes of New York City in the early twentieth century.

After 30 years of collecting the Ashcan School artists, Ratner felt the need to support the artists of today. In 2008, or so, he attended a Sotheby's preview of important American paintings.

There he came across two paintings by Gary Ernest Smith of western agrarian scenes that floored him.

When he later learned of Smith's comment that "art is a way of addressing humanity," it heightened his interest in Smith and other western painters who had a humane response to their environment.

The Museum of the Big Bend is open from Tuesday-Saturday from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. and Sunday from 1-5 p.m.

Admission and parking are free. Access the museum from Loop Road/Harrison Street - Entrance 4. The museum is the large native rock building on the right hand side.

On August 12, 2016, AEP Texas Central Company (TCC) and AEP Texas North Company (TNC) (jointly, the Companies) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to extend their Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Tariffs an additional three years, to January 1, 2020. The Companies do not propose to change the terms of the tariffs or the current pricing in this docket. Sections 14.001, 39.001 and 39.051 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act and Sections 25.341 through 25.343 of 16 Tex. Admin. Code provide for the Commission to authorize a utility to petition to provide Facilities Rental Services if such services are not widely available to customers in an area. TCC and TNC received Commission approval to provide such services until January 1, 2017 in Docket No. 41799. The Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Services are contained in Section 6.1.2.3.6, 6.1.3.3.6 and 6.1.4.3.6 of the Companies' Tariffs for Retail Delivery Service.

The Companies have proposed an effective date of January 1, 2017, at which time the proposed tariffs will be deemed approved if no objection is filed with the Commission. Only customers currently taking service under the existing tariffs, as well as the Retail Electric Providers servicing those customers, are affected by this application. Those affected customers take delivery service under Distribution Service Schedule 6.1.1.1.4 Primary Voltage Service, and are located throughout the service areas of TCC and TNC. This filing has been assigned PUC Docket No. 46284.

The deadline for filing a motion to intervene in this proceeding is September 30, 2016. Persons who wish to intervene in the proceeding or comment upon the action should contact the Public Utility Commission of Texas, P.O. Box 13326, Austin, Texas 78711-3326. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission of Texas at (512) 936-7120 or (888) 782-8477. Hearing- and speech-impaired individuals with text telephones (TTY) may contact the Commission at (512) 936-7136. Persons with questions or who want more information on this petition may contact AEP Texas Central Company, 539 North Carancahua Street, Corpus Christi, Texas 78401 or call (877) 373-4858 during normal business hours.

The Companies do not propose to change the terms of the tariffs or the current pricing in this docket. Sections 14.001, 39.001 and 39.051 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act and Sections 25.341 through 25.343 of 16 Tex. Admin. Code provide for the Commission to authorize a utility to petition to provide Facilities Rental Services if such services are not widely available to customers in an area. The Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Services are contained in Section 612.3.6, 613.3.6 and 614.3.6 of the Companies' Tariffs for Retail Delivery Service. The Companies have proposed an effective date of January 1, 2017, at which time the proposed tariffs will be deemed approved if no objection is filed with the Commission. Only customers currently taking service under the existing tariffs, as well as the Retail Electric Providers servicing those customers, are affected by this application. Those affected customers take delivery service under Distribution Service Schedule 6111A Primary Voltage Service, and are located throughout the service areas of TCC and TNC. This filing has been assigned PUC Docket No. 46284. The deadline for filing a motion to intervene in this proceeding is September 30, 2016. Notice of Application to Extend Facilities Rental Tariffs
On August 12, 2016, AEP Texas Central Company (TCC) and AEP Texas North Company (TNC) (jointly, the Companies) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to extend their Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Tariffs an additional three years, to January 1, 2020. The Companies do not propose to change the terms of the tariffs or the current pricing in this docket. Sections 14.001, 39.001 and 39.051 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act and Sections 25.341 through 25.343 of 16 Tex. Admin. Code provide for the Commission to submit a tariff to petition to provide Facilities Rental Services if such services are not widely available to customers in an area. TCC and TNC received Commission approval to provide such services until January 1, 2017 in Docket No. 41799. The Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Services are contained in Section 6 of 1.2.3.6, 6.1.3.3.6 and 6.1.4.3.6 of the Companies' Tariffs for Retail Delivery Service.
The Companies have proposed an effective date of January 1, 2017, at which time the proposed tariffs will be deemed approved if no objection is filed with the Commission. Only customers currently taking service under the existing tariffs, as well as the Retail Electric Providers servicing those customers, are affected by this application. Those affected customers take delivery service under Distribution Service Schedule 6.1.1.1.4 Primary Voltage Service, and are located throughout the service areas of TCC and TNC. This filing has been assigned PUC Docket No. 46284.
The deadline for filing a motion to intervene in this proceeding is September 30, 2016. for first down completions, before Zeric Garcia would make a diving catch on a Henson pass from six yards out for his second TD of the night.

Jonathan Garcia's kick made it 34-6 at halftime, and the Eagles would add to that two plays into the third period, when Henson broke up the middle for his 75-yard score. Garcia would then stop the Jacket's initial drive of the second half, recovering a fumble by Trevino, but Pecos wouldn't score again until the opening minute of the final period, when Rincon went over on a counter play from 10 yards out.

Kermit would fare better on the ground in the second half, but fumbles by both teams would stop drives, while Pecos' reserves would see much of the playing time in the fourth quarter after Rincon's score.

The win improved the Eagles to 1-1 on the season, while Kermit dropped to 0-2. The Bucks downed Van Horn on Friday, 25-6, after an opening loss to Grape Creek. Friday's game will also be the Eagles' home opener. Pecos will play three of their next four games at Rotary Field, including their Sept. 16 homecoming game against Fabens.

HOUSTON (AP) — The Big 12 has narrowed the field of candidates for possible expansion to 11 schools, with Memphis and Temple among the latest to be cut from consideration, a person with direct knowledge of the situation tells The Associated Press.

The person spoke Friday on condition of anonymity because the Big 12 will not be making public any of its dealings with schools interested in joining the 10-team conference.

Big 12 officials are planning to start holding meetings in the Dallas area next week with BYU, Air Force, Central Florida.

Cincinnati, Connecticut, Colorado State, Houston, Rice, SMU, South Florida and Tulane. The next meeting of Big 12 presidents and chancellors is in mid-October.

ESPN was first to report the field had been cut, with Memphis and Temple out of consideration.

Big 12 Commissioner Bob Bowlsby declined comment in a text message to AP.

Memphis released a statement from university president M. David Rudd stating he would not comment on the Big 12 process and referred to a portion of the nondisclosure agreement the school had with the conference. Temple officials did not immediately respond to a request for comment.

BYU is a football independent with most of its other sports competing in the West Coast Conference. Air Force and Colorado State are currently in the Mountain West. Rice, located in Houston, competes in Conference USA. The rest of the schools are in the American Athletic Conference.

The Big 12 has not committed to expanding, but Bowlsby and Oklahoma President David Boren said in July that it would consider adding two or four schools. Adding members for football only is also a possibility.

cuentra cerca de la hacienda de Cibola Creek, cerca de Shafter. Los EMS de Presidio también respondieron hasta el límite del Condado de Brewster siguiendo la carretera del río, según Baeza, María - que hace poco compró una ambulancia nueva con una subvención del distrito hospitalario - también respaldó a los EMS de Presidio cuando sea necesario, tal y como lo estipula en una cláusula en la subvención arriba mencionada.

La ambulancia, dijo Nieto, es necesaria para seguir trabajando en el sur del Condado de Presidio. "Los residentes del Condado de Presidio tienen derecho [a atención sanitaria en caso de emergencias]," dijo, citando también los problemas fiscales de la Ciudad de Presidio. "No importan los problemas de la ciudad, no podemos dejar morir a la gente." Baeza también aprovechó la oportunidad para refutar las afirmaciones de que inmigrantes no documentados son trasladados a menudo a través de la frontera mediante los EMS de Presidio. Aunque el 15 por ciento de las llamadas a los EMS vienen del Puerto de Entrada de Presidio, dijo que la mayoría son ciudadanos estadounidenses o inmigrantes o trabajadoras estadounidenses legales. Un pequeño número, dijo, son ciudadanos mexicanos, aunque son investigados cuidadosamente en el puerto.

"He visto cómo Adriana revisa sus documentos [mientras están en la ambulancia], comprobando que sean legales," dijo. En otras noticias relacionadas con el distrito hospitalario, la junta acordó la tarifa propuesta para el impuesto sobre bienes inmuebles: 0.1275 centavos por 100$ de valoración, un poco más alta que la tarifa del 2015: 0.1215 centavos por 100$ de valoración.

Se espera que la subida aumente los ingresos procedentes del impuesto sobre bienes inmuebles de 41,700$ a 141,000$. Se espera que la junta adopte formalmente la tasa impositiva durante su reunión regular el 15 de septiembre.

Notice of Application to Extend Facilities Rental Tariffs

On August 12, 2016, AEP Texas Central Company (TCC) and AEP Texas North Company (TNC) (together, the Companies) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to extend their Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Tariffs an additional three years, to January 1, 2020. The Companies do not propose to change the terms of the tariffs or the current pricing in this docket. Sections 14.001, 39.001 and 39.051 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act and Sections 25.341 through 25.343 of 16 Tex. Admin. Code provide for the Commission to authorize a utility to petition to provide Facilities Rental Services if such services are not widely available to customers in an area. TCC and TNC received Commission approval to provide such services until January 1, 2017 in Docket No. 41799. The Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Services are contained in Section 6.1.2.3.6, 6.1.3.3.6 and 6.1.4.3.6 of the Companies' Tariffs for Retail Delivery Service.

The Companies have proposed an effective date of January 1, 2017, at which time the proposed tariffs will be deemed approved if no objection is filed with the Commission. Only customers currently taking service under the existing tariffs, as well as the Retail Electric Providers servicing those customers, are affected by this application. Those affected customers take delivery service under Distribution Service Schedule 6.1.1.1.4 Primary Voltage Service, and are located throughout the service areas of TCC and TNC. This filing has been assigned PUC Docket No. 46284.

The deadline for filing a motion to intervene in this proceeding is September 30, 2016. Persons who wish to intervene in the proceeding or comment upon the action should contact the Public Utility Commission of Texas, P.O. Box 13326, Austin, Texas 78711-3326. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Commission at (512) 936-7120 or (811) 782-8477. Hearing- and speech-impaired individuals with text telephones (TTY) may contact the Commission at (512) 936-7136. Notice of Application to Extend Facilities Rental Tariffs

On August 12, 2016, AEP Texas Central Company (TCC) and AEP Texas North Company (TNC) (jointly, the Companies) filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) to extend their Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Tariffs an additional three years, to January 1, 2020. The Companies do not propose to change the terms of the tariffs or the current pricing in this docket. Sections 14.001, 39.001 and 39.051 of the Public Utility Regulatory Act and Sections 25.341 through 25.343 of 16 Tex. Admin. Code provide for the Commission to authorize a utility to petition to provide Facilities Rental Services if such services are not widely available to customers in an area. TCC and TNC received Commission approval to provide such services until January 1, 2017 in Docket No. 41799. The Distribution Voltage Facilities Rental Services are contained in Section 6.1.2.3.6, 6.1.3.3.6 and 6.1.4.3.6 of the Companies' Tariffs for Retail Delivery Service.

The Companies have proposed an effective date of January 1, 2017, at which time the proposed tariffs will be deemed approved if no objection is filed with the Commission. Only customers currently taking service under the existing tariffs, as well as the Retail Electric Providers servicing those customers, are affected by this application. Those affected customers take delivery service under Distribution Service Schedule 6.1.1.1.4 Primary Voltage Service, and are located throughout the service areas of TCC and TNC. This filing has been assigned PUC Docket No. 46284.

The deadline for filing a motion to intervene in this proceeding is September 30, 2016. Persons who wish to intervene in the proceeding or comment upon the action should contact the Public Utility Commission of Texas, P.O. Box 13326, Austin, Texas 78711-3326. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission of Texas at (512) 936-7120 or (888) 782-8477. Hearing- and speech-impaired individuals with text telephones (TTY) may contact the Commission at (512) 936-7136. Persons with questions or who want more information on this petition may contact AEP Texas Central Company, 539 North Carancahua Street, Corpus Christi, Texas 78401 or call (877) 373-4858 during normal business hours.
