PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
FILING CLERK

SOAH ORDER NO. 3
STAYING PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE AND
REQUIRING STATUS REPORT OR MOTION FOR REMAND

On November 8, 2017, the staff (Staff) of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) filed an agreed request to stay the deadlines set forth in the procedural schedule for his case adopted in SOAH Order No. 2. Staff represented that the parties have agreed to a settlement of all issues in controversy and are in the process of preparing the settlement documents.

Under the circumstances, Staff's request has merit and should be granted. Therefore, all procedural deadlines set forth in SOAH Order No. 2 are STAYED, and the parties are ORDERED to file, by no later than November 30, 2017, either (a) a written report regarding the status of the settlement or (b) the settlement agreement, evidence in support of such agreement, and a motion to remand the application to the Commission.

SIGNED November 13, 2017.
