Agreement Designating Retail Water Service Area Boundaries

Aqua Water Supply Corporation ("Aqua") and the City of Smithville, Texas ("Smithville"), being the only Parties to the Agreement Designating Retail Water Service Area Boundaries ("Agreement"), with an Effective Date from and after the date of execution by all Parties, do hereby enter into this Agreement. Exhibit A shows a map of the boundary transfer and Exhibit B shows a written description of the transfer area. The Parties agree as follows:

- 1) Aqua is a nonprofit rural water supply corporation organized under Texas Water Code, Chapter 67, for the purposes stated in Water Code §67.002. Aqua possesses Certificate of Convenience and Necessity ("CCN") No. 10294 ("Aqua Certificate") issued by the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality ("TCEQ").
- 2) Smithville is a General Law (Type A) municipality organized and existing under the laws of the State of Texas and located wholly within Bastrop County, Texas. Smithville possesses water CCN No. 10946 ("Smithville Certificate") issued by the TCEQ, authorizing Smithville to provide such services within the geographical area contained within the CCN ("Smithville Certificated Service Area").
- 3) This Agreement confirms that it is the Parties' intent that Smithville's revised CCN map, as depicted by Exhibit A of this document, be Smithville's official CCN map on file with the Public Utility Commission, as well as Aqua's revised boundaries as depicted in Exhibit A be Aqua's revised CCN.
- 4) Aqua agrees to decertify the water service transfer area ("Transfer Area") depicted on the map attached hereto as Exhibit A, which map is incorporated herein for all purposes. Aqua further agrees that said Transfer Area be certified to Smithville.
- 5) Aqua shall cooperate with Smithville to transfer the Transfer Area described in paragraph (4) above through any appropriate process before the Public Utility Commission, including the process described by Texas Water Code §13.248.
- 6) Exhibit C attached hereto is reflective of the Transfer Area shown on Exhibit A and is the proposed map to be used in the Notice requirements of the Public Utility Commission. Exhibit C is subject to change during the Public Utility Commission review process.
- 7) The transfer of said water CCN does NOT include the transfer of the current meters and/or facilities located within the CCN transfer area. Unless Aqua and Smithville agree otherwise in writing, any current metered customers described in the previous sentence and any future customers that are the recipients of a transfer of such meters or receive water service from such meters shall be customers of Aqua. Aqua's existing facilities within the Transfer Area are shown on Exhibit A. Exhibit D provides a list of addresses for the existing Aqua metered customers in the Transfer Area. In the future, Smithville may pursue a purchase from Aqua for all or part of these facilities and metered customers.
- 8) An Emergency Interconnect Agreement may be pursued in the future between Aqua and Smithville in the general location identified on Exhibit A. It is anticipated that the existing Aqua meter serving Riverbend Park (a City of Smithville Park), will be transferred to Smithville at the time of this Interconnect.
- 9) The agreement contemplated herein is contingent specifically on this Agreement being approved by the governing body of each party.
- 10) Aqua agrees that it shall not protest, directly or indirectly, or cause the protest of Smithville's Application.
- 11) Aqua is currently indebted to the United States Department of Agriculture – Rural Development ("USDA-RD") and CoBank on promissory notes used to finance improvements to Aqua's water utility system pursuant to 7 U.S.C. §1926. USDA-RD and CoBank hold security interests in Aqua's CCN pursuant to real estate deeds of trust executed in connection with the aforementioned promissory notes. Final consummation of this sale is contingent on approval of the release of Aqua's CCN for the Transfer Area from the security interests held by USDA-RD and CoBank.

- 12) Within ten (10) business days after the Effective Date, Aqua shall file appropriate documentation with the USDA-RD and Cobank requesting release of their security interests in Aqua's water utility CCN for the area described in Exhibit A. Upon receipt by Aqua of written confirmation from USDA-RD and CoBank of such releases, Aqua will inform Smithville of such receipt. Thereafter, as soon as practicable, Smithville and Aqua shall cooperatively and jointly submit this Agreement to the Public Utility Commission and request that the terms of the Agreement be incorporated into the respective CCNs of Parties.
- 13) As compensation for the release by Aqua of the Transfer Area to Smithville, Smithville shall pay Aqua the compensation of $10.00 and other valuable consideration.
- 14) The Parties agree to take all other actions necessary and convenient in connection with implementing this Agreement.
- 15) This Agreement shall be effective from and after the date of execution by all parties.
- 16) Upon execution, this Agreement shall be binding on Smithville and Aqua and their successors and assigns.
