Short-term and Long-term Incentives

Incentive Compensation by Salary Level for STI and LTI Receivers

The table below indicates short-term incentives and expected value of long-term incentives, expressed as a percent of base salary. Compensation data was only used if a long-term incentive was reported. Base salary ranges are expressed in $000s. The expected progression of percentile values for each subsequent salary level may not be realized due to variations in organizations and observations represented at each salary level.

Long-term Incentive data reflects values based upon the Black-Scholes methodology.

Overview

Actual/Target Incentive Payouts

The table below indicates the actual/target incentive and total cash payouts made to employees in the survey at the specified base salary level.

Compensation data was only used if a base salary, incentive (including a zero payout), and targeted incentive as a percent of base salary were reported. Target total cash-receiving includes short-term incentive and sales incentive. Actual total cash includes short-term incentive, sales incentive, and profit sharing.

210.100.130 2nd Level Finance Executive

All Organizations

Responsible for providing overall direction for tax, insurance, budget, credit and treasury functions for the organization. Provides direction for all corporate financial functions so that financial transactions, policies, and procedures meet the organization's short and medium-term business objectives and are conducted in accordance with regulations and standards. Activities may include: credit control, cash flow, investment management, tax, insurance, treasury, internal audit, budgeting and forecasting, and foreign exchange. Leads a team of senior managers to ensure that the organization's financial strategy is implemented effectively, consistently and according to established guidelines. This is the top position in an organization where finance is a separate sub-function reporting to the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Note: If incumbent is the head of a separate sub-function, such as Controller, Treasurer, etc., please match the incumbent to the appropriate sub-function position. This is generally a single incumbent position. Only one employee, the most senior individual, per organization entity should be reported

210.100.130 2nd Level Finance Executive

Services (Non-Financial)

Responsible for providing overall direction for tax, insurance, budget, credit and treasury functions for the organization. Provides direction for all corporate financial functions so that financial transactions, policies, and procedures meet the organization's short and medium-term business objectives and are conducted in accordance with regulations and standards. Activities may include: credit control, cash flow, investment management, tax, insurance, treasury, internal audit, budgeting and forecasting, and foreign exchange. Leads a team of senior managers to ensure that the organization's financial strategy is implemented effectively, consistently and according to established guidelines. This is the top position in an organization where finance is a separate sub-function reporting to the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Note: If incumbent is the head of a separate sub-function, such as Controller, Treasurer, etc., please match the incumbent to the appropriate sub-function position. This is generally a single incumbent position. Only one employee, the most senior individual, per organization entity should be reported.
