SOAH ORDER NO. 8
GRANTING JOINT MOTION TO ADMIT EVIDENCE AND REMAND PROCEEDING

On September 10, 2018, the staff (Staff) of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC), Galveston County Municipal Utility District No. 12 (MUD 12), and 207 ratepayers represented by Omega Bay Improvement Committee (collectively Joint Movants) filed a Joint Motion to Admit Evidence and Remand Proceeding. The Joint Movants represent that the parties have reached agreement on and resolved all issues in this case and there is no longer any need for a contested case hearing. The Motion is granted.

The following evidence, which was either previously filed with the PUC or was attached to the motion filed with the PUC, is admitted into the record:

1. Official Record of November 20, 2017 Meeting of the Board of Director, filed July 9, 2018;
2. Direct Testimonies of Lydia Cook and William Alcorn, filed July 9, 2018;
3. Copy of the signed Unanimous Stipulation and Agreement (Attachment A);
4. Staff witness Testimony of Andrew Novak in Support of Settlement (Attachment B); and
5. MUD 12's response to Commission Staff's first RFI, filed March 27, 2018.

This case is remanded to the PUC for processing and is dismissed from the docket of the State Office of Administrative Hearings. As soon as practicable, Staff shall submit an electronic copy of the proposed order to cadmorders@puc.texas.gov.

SIGNED September 13, 2018.
