CITY OF AUSTIN'S LIST OF ISSUES

City of Austin doing business as Austin Water (AW) files this List of Issues in accordance with the Public Utility Commission's (Commission) Order Requesting List of Issues issued on May 3, 2019.

I. ISSUES TO BE ADDRESSED

1. What are the just and reasonable rates for AW that are sufficient, equitable, and consistent in application to the North Austin Municipal Utility District No. 1, Northtown Municipal Utility District, Travis County Water Control and Improvement District No. 10, and Wells Branch Municipal Utility District (Districts) and that are not unreasonably preferential, prejudicial, or discriminatory?
2. In establishing the proposed rates, did AW design rates for the Districts consistent with ratemaking principles?
 - a. What is the appropriate fixed charge?
 - b. What is the appropriate volumetric charge?
3. Are AW's proposed post-test year adjustments reasonable and necessary?
4. Are AW's rate case expenses reasonable and necessary? How should AW recover its necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in this proceeding?

II. PRAYER

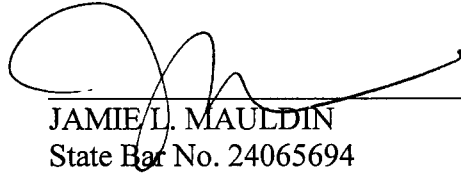

Austin Water respectfully requests that the Commission include the foregoing list of issues as matters to be decided in this case and grant Austin Water any other relief to which it shows itself justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
