CITY OF AUSTIN D/B/A AUSTIN WATER'S
REVISED INDEX OF VOLUMINOUS MATERIALS
FILED IN RESPONSE TO DISTRICTS'
CORRECTED RFI NO. 3-1

The City of Austin (City) doing business as Austin Water (Austin Water or AW) files this revised portion of the Voluminous Index filed in response to North Austin Municipal Utility District No. 1, Northtown Municipal Utility District, Travis County Water Control and Improvement District No. 10 and Wells Branch Municipal Utility District's (collectively Districts) Corrected RFI No. 3-1. The original index (Index to Districts 3-1) was filed on October 25, 2019.

Subsequent to filing the original index to Districts 3-1, it was brought to Austin Water's attention that the index referencing AW Districts 3-1, Attachment Nos. 85 through 90 did not match the Attachment file names. The error is limited to this attachment range. The rest of the Index to Districts 3-1 is not affected.

The attachments remain the same as AW initially provided them, other than the file name for AW District 3-1, Attachment No.90. Austin Water has corrected the file name to "20090115-014, Agenda Backup (Board Commission Action).pdf." Attachment No.90, with the corrected file name, is attached to this pleading.

Austin Water has included a revised index for AW Districts 3-1, Attachment Nos. 85 through 90 below. This updated portion of the index should be used in place of the same portion of the original Index to Districts 3-1:
