1. Workpapers for all testimony are due 1 working day after the testimony is filed.
2. For written discovery on Intervenor and Staff direct testimony and SPS rebuttal/Staff and Intervenor Cross Rebuttal testimony: (1) responses shall be filed within 7 working days of receipt of the discovery (or, for SPS rebuttal/Staff and Intervenor Cross Rebuttal, no later than 3:00 p.m. on the day before the witness is scheduled to take the stand, whichever is earlier); (2) objections shall be filed within 5 working days of receipt of the discovery; (3) motions to compel shall be filed within 3 working days of receipt of the objections; and (4) responses to motions to compel shall be filed within 3 working days of receipt of the motion to compel.
3. Drafts of testimony are not discoverable.
4. Replies to all written objections and motions to strike any parties' pre-filed testimony are due in writing within 5 working days after receipt of the written objections or motions to strike.
5. E-mail is an acceptable form of service for filings:
  - a. SPS will use a SharePoint site, in conjunction with notice by e-mail to parties by 3:00 p.m. Central Time, to provide notice of filing and service of non-confidential and non-highly sensitive responses to discovery requests, including all applicable non-confidential and non-highly sensitive exhibits (in native form when applicable). Confidential and highly-sensitive responses and exhibits will be served in hard copy; and
  - b. SPS will file its responses to written discovery with the Public Utility Commission of Texas.
6. Parties will provide their written discovery requests (RFI questions, requests for production of documents, and requests for admission—but not the pleading, instructions, etc.) in Word format.

Respectfully submitted,
