CERTIFICATE OF AXON POWER	§	OF TEXAS
AND GAS, LLC	§

TEXAS-NEW MEXICO POWER COMPANY’S NOTICE
OF INTERVENTION WITHDRAWAL

COMES NOW Texas-New Mexico Power Company (“TNMP”) and files this notice of intervention withdrawal. Since, as of May 4, 2022, Axon Power and Gas, LLC now has no current balance and is not serving any customers in TNMP’s service area, TNMP does not intend to present evidence, examine witnesses, otherwise participate in any hearing, mediation, or briefing. Consequently, in the interest of judicial economy, TNMP withdraws its intervention so that other parties may proceed without further need to serve or account for TNMP in this matter.

Finally, while TNMP believes that this notice of intervention withdrawal does not require formal approval to be effective, to the extent such approval is required, TNMP hereby requests its notice of intervention withdrawal be approved, that TNMP be dismissed from further participation in this matter and grant any and all further relief to which it is entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
