Public Utility Commission of Texas Application for Electricity Broker Registration

General Information

Individual employees and agents of broker firms and persons acting only as agents of retail electric providers are not required to register as brokers.

Brokers do not sell or take title to electric energy.

Registered brokers must comply with customer protection provisions, disclosure requirements, and marketing guidelines established by the Commission. An administrative penalty may be assessed for failure to comply with PURA or Commission rules.

Re: HUB Certification Extension

Dear Historically Underutilized Business:

This letter is to notify you that the Texas Building and Procurement Commission (TBPC) has extended your Historically Underutilized Business (HUB) certification for two additional years. A new HUB Certificate reflecting the revised expiration date for your business is enclosed.

The two year extension is made pursuant to the revised requirements of Texas Administrative Code (TAC), Title 1, Part 5, Chapter 111, Subchapter B, §111.19 (Recertification) which increases the HUB certification period from two years to four years, effective May 5, 2003. The change in the HUB certification period is designed to simplify the administrative requirements associated with HUB recertification and retain more HUB vendors in the program.

Approximately 90-days prior to your new scheduled expiration date, TBPC will send a HUB recertification notice. Please note that if there is any change in the ownership and/or active participation in the management, control, and operation of your business prior to your HUB certification expiration date, you must still notify TBPC within 30 days of the change pursuant to the HUB program requirements.

Should you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Charlotte Banks, Manager of the Statewide HUB Program at (512) 475-2414. You may also contact a HUB Program representative toll free at (888) 863-5881.

Sincerely,
