*The wholesale water suppliers continue to invoice Blue Cereus for volumetric fees set forth in the wholesale water supply contracts that expired almost six years ago in 2014. Moreover, they continue to make annual increases to the volumetric fees, as provided in the expired wholesale contracts and as though those contracts were still in effect - which, of course, they are not. Blue Cereus's temporary manager pays no volumetric fees to the wholesale water suppliers. Instead, he pays only the base fees charged during Blue Cereus' temporary management. As demonstrated by the spreadsheets in this report, Blue Cereus's retail systems can ill-afford to pay more.
