Lexington Tops Smithville 62-54

The Lexington Eagles opened their 2020-21 home basketball season with a 62-54 win over the Smithville Tigers Friday night. The win makes the Eagles' record 2-1 basketball se in the young campaign.

Friday's contest was rugged all night long. The players were playing aggressively. Both teams did not shoot very well at the beginning of the game. Smithville kept firing away at the basket. Their big 65° post man collected rebounds and scored put-back points. The post man had 25 of the Tiger points.

The Eagles survived due to quickness and three-point shooting. The Eagles dropped six of the three-pointers the contest. The Eagle weak point was in their free thr shooting, where they were 9 of 23.

The win makes the Eagles 3-1 for the young season.

Robinson Rockettes Past Lady Eagles

by Mike Organ
After Friday nights' poor shooting game against Luling, the Lady Eagles took the same act on the road to Robinson Saturday afternoon. The Rockettes were a better team than Lexington had faced this season. The continued poor shooting, plus being careless with passes, led to the 57-29 whipping the Lady Eagles were administered.

The Lady Eagles had only four players score. Ashunti Cooper had 17 points to lead the scoring. The Lady Eagles did not play team ball as they did in their early games.
