Dear «Last_Name»

The City of Fort Worth and the City of Lakeside negotiated a transfer of portions of their water service areas in 2016. Enclosed is the official notification of Fort Worth's application for transferring some water certificate of necessity boundaries. The application was filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC Docket No. 52632).

Fort Worth has two water projects in regards to this transfer so it can serve the properties inside the Fort Worth city limits. The project involving improvements along Watercress Drive was completed in September 2019. Improvements to serve Fort Worth properties in other areas affected by the transfer are in final design.

A hard copy of the transfer application is available in the Water Department's office on the second floor of Fort Worth City Hall, 200 Texas St. Complete filing documents can be found on the PUC's website (<http://interchange.puc.texas.gov/>) using the docket number referenced above.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Wade Goodman

Alabama's Will Anderson Jr. sacks Auburn's TJ Finley during their game Nov. 27, 2021, in Auburn, Ala. Alabama plays Georgia in the College Football Playoff national championship game Monday.

have a lot in common. The Bulldogs and Tide mostly play straight up on second and third down, with lots of pressures and more exotic looks on third down. Especially those twists and blitzes that attack the middle of an offensive line.

The Tide tinkered with their line this season and found a combination they liked late but could be forced to make more changes in the title game. Right guard Emil Ekyior (shoulder) and right tackle Chris Owens (ankle) both left the Cotton Bowl with injuries.

Meanwhile, All-America nose tackle Jordan Davis and the Georgia defensive front reverted back to regular-season form against Michigan.

No Metchie: Maybe the biggest difference between the first and second meeting when Alabama has the ball is that the Tide will be without second-leading receiver John Metchie to complement All-America deep threat Jameson Williams.

Metchie was lost for the season against Georgia with a knee injury, but not before he had six catches for 97 yards and a touchdown. Alabama always has another receiver, but nobody else is as much as of a run-after-the-catch threat as Metchie.

"Now Slade Bolden can kind of be that a little bit in the slot," McElroy said.

"The young guys are great, but they're still going to miss that presence."

Russo's prediction: Picking against Saban and Alabama twice in the same season is never wise but: GEORGIA 28-24.

Two men died after a shooting Friday night in Arlington.

The incident occurred around 8 p.m. near the 2100 block of Cypress Club Drive. Officers responded to the apartment complex after a report that two people were unresponsive in the parking lot.

"The caller indicated they'd heard what they believed to be gunshots roughly 10 minutes prior to finding the victims," police said. "When officers arrived on scene, they located a 31-year-old male and a 21-year-old male with apparent gunshot wounds. Both men were pronounced deceased at the scene."

The men have not been identified by the medical examiner's office as of early Saturday morning.

Police said they do not believe either victim lived at the apartment complex, and they're unsure why the men were at the location.

"A vehicle belonging to one of the victims was found in the parking lot and seized as evidence," police said.

Investigators are still searching the area for witnesses and video of the incident. The investigation remains ongoing. There is no suspect in custody.

Anyone with information should call Det. Julia Hall at 817-459-5325.
