UNOPPOSED REQUEST FOR EXTENSION

On November 9, 2021, Copano Cove Water Company, Inc. (“Copano Cove”) and CSWR-Texas Utility Operating Company, LLC (“CSWR Texas”), (collectively, “the Applicants”), filed an application for approval of the sale, transfer, or merger of facilities and certificate of convenience and necessity (CCN) rights in Aransas County.

On January 25, 2022, the administrative law judge filed Order No. 3, directing the Staff (“Staff”) of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (“Commission”) and Applicant’s (jointly, “Parties”) to file a joint motion to admit evidence and proposed notice of approval approving sale and allowing transaction to proceed by February 28, 2022. On February 25, 2022, the administrative law judge approved a request for extension and extended the deadline to submit the proposed order until March 28, 2022. Therefore, this pleading is timely filed.

I. UNOPPOSED REQUEST FOR EXTENSION

Pursuant to 16 Texas Administrative Code (TAC) § 22.4(b), a party may request that the time allowed for filing of any documents be extended for good cause. Parties require more time to address certain issues in this docket and draft the joint motion to admit evidence and proposed notice of approval. Accordingly, the Applicants respectfully request the entry of an order extending the deadline for Parties to file a joint motion to admit evidence and proposed notice of approval by two weeks, until April 11, 2022. The Applicants have conferred with counsel for Staff and are authorized to represent that Staff supports the proposed extension.

II. CONCLUSION

The Applicants respectfully request the entry of an order extending the deadline for Parties to file a joint motion to admit evidence and proposed notice of approval to April 11, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,
