Re: PUC Docket No. 53719; SOAH Docket No. 473-22-04394 - Application of Entergy Texas, Inc. for Authority to Change Rates.

Dear Mr. Journeay:

By filing this letter, Entergy Texas, Inc. (“ETI”) agrees to extend the jurisdictional deadline in this case to July 20, 2023.

ETI filed its application for authority to change rates on July 1, 2022. The original jurisdictional deadline of May 25, 2023,¹ was thereafter extended by agreement to June 29, 2023.² On June 7, 2023, ETI filed a letter requesting an update from the State Office of Administrative Hearings (“SOAH”) Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) regarding the expected issuance of the Proposal for Decision (“PFD”) on the remaining contested issues in this proceeding in order to assess the need for and length of any additional extension to the existing June 29, 2023 deadline. According to the ALJ’s responsive letter to the parties, the PFD will be issued by June 19, 2023, and the ALJs encouraged ETI to account for at least three weeks after that date for the parties’ exceptions to the PFD and replies to exceptions, which would be July 10, 2023.³ Accordingly, ETI now agrees to extend the jurisdictional deadline to July 20, 2023.

ETI’s agreement to extend the jurisdictional deadline in this case does not affect the relate-back date of December 3, 2022, pursuant to PURA § 36.211(b).

Sincerely,

George G. Hoyt
