PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
FILING CLERK

ORDER APPROVING ERCOT REVISION REQUESTS

This Order addresses a revision to one Electric Reliability Council of Texas (ERCOT) rule. The Commission approves this revision and accompanying market impact statement.

NPRR1160, Administrative Change for March 1, 2023 Nodal Protocols – Align Section 22 Attachment D: Standard Form Black Start Agreement,

Per ERCOT Protocol § 21.1 (4) ERCOT may file revision requests for non-substantive corrections. This type of nodal protocol revision request (NPRR) is referred to as an Administrative NPRR. If no comments are submitted on an Administrative NPRR before the Commission's consideration, the Administrative NPRR does not go through the regular stakeholder process, but still requires Commission approval.

On February 1, 2023, ERCOT filed a copy of its Notice of Submission of Administrative Revision Request, which includes an ERCOT Market Impact Statement. These supporting ERCOT documents constitute the market impact analysis.

Commission Staff filed a memorandum on February 9, 2023, related to this revision in which it recommends that the Commission approve the revision to the rules.

No comments have been filed regarding this Administrative NPRR.

The Commission finds that this revision is necessary for the proper functioning of the ERCOT market as demonstrated by the supporting material. The Commission issues the following orders:

1. The Commission approves NPRR1160 and accompanying market impact statement.

Signed at Austin, Texas the 16th day of February 2023
